

AMERICAN FUNERAL RECORD

A READY REFERENCE DAY BOOK FOR FUNERAL DIRECTORS

For the man who enters up the order for Funeral Arrangements:

This Record Book is of great assistance in recording funerals and funeral arrangements. It will be found prudent to make an entry in each space to satisfy not only the need for completeness and accuracy but also to create confidence in your patrons. A Funeral Director's record items of a deceased can prove invaluable in the coming years.

The clauses, "Order Given by" and "How Secured", together with the space for signature at the bottom of the page provide a professional approach.

The clause, "Cause of Death", is essential for several reasons, among which are: (a) to adopt correct measures for embalming; (b) to know whether the subject died of a contagious disease; (c) to ascertain the necessity of disinfection.

An essential feature of the chart is the rotation of items to be charged. Entries should be made for items furnished, the rest left blank, whereupon the bill can then be quickly rendered.

NOTE: Several extra lines near the bottom are available for unlisted items.

Underneath the chart, the part devoted to the Ledger provides the means of keeping account of the entire funeral work. The total of the bill may be transferred into the regular Ledger as one item.

This Funeral Record represents the compilation of years of experience in the profession. Items which might not be required for reference in later years have been omitted so that a complete record may appear on a single page.

FUNERAL ETHICS

Details of funeral work may vary slightly in different communities, but the following rules of FUNERAL ETIQUETTE apply generally. While the Funeral Directors are conversant with matters pertaining to well conducted funerals, the suggestions set forth herein cannot fail to prove of interest and value and perhaps reveal points worthy of close observance.

In all things use good judgment and cool deliberation in performing your work, and remember that you are not called upon to console the bereaved, but to take care of the remains, and do that in the most competent and least ostentatious way.

Be courteous and polite under any and all circumstances, however trying. Refrain from alluding to your work as a "job"; it is not only bad form, but is also apt to offend your patrons. Term it a "call", a "funeral", or "an order".

Perform your work in a quiet and considerate manner and make as few requests of the family as possible. Talk in an undertone while at the funeral house.

When selling the Casket and Furnishings, ascertain what means there are, and how much money is calculated to be expended for the funeral, then recommend the highest class of goods within the amount.

Should you be confronted with the argument that lower prices than yours are quoted or promised by associations or parties who solicit funerals on a life subscription plan, you may well ask the client if he or she had investigated the promoters' financial responsibility. If it becomes absolutely necessary, meet the price, rather than lose the client. But you yourself had better investigate the contracts of those promoters to discover the weaknesses and flaws in them, then point them out honestly to your patrons. (See resolutions adopted in October, 1937, by the "Disabled Veterans of the World War, St. Louis Chapter No. 1.")

If offered in security an insurance policy of a Company with which you are not familiar, you can make inquiry at the "Better Business Bureau" or at the insurance commissioner's office of your state.

Take correct note of all arrangements for the funeral. Be sure that you have a clear understanding with your customer on all points pertaining to the funeral arrangement, and then note same into your Funeral Record Book. Also be careful that you have the correct spelling of name of the deceased for the newspapers, etc. A memorandum sheet of the "AMERICAN" Funeral Record will assist you greatly in these functions.

Further, take note carefully of the biographical items, such as religion, occupation, age, etc., and insert them in the spaces provided for in this Record Book. Items of record of a deceased are often inquired for at the Funeral Director's, and by keeping complete record, your patrons will see for themselves that you are doing your work on up-to-date principles, and that a funeral is handled by you better than a mere "putting the body under ground". Death Certificate, memorandum sheet on which the order was taken, newspaper clippings, and notations should be placed in an envelope and filed for possible future reference.

At the Funeral the Funeral Director should dress in a dark, preferably black suit, and should wear a black necktie; but in summer he may wear an all white suit if he prefers.

Use Badge consisting of delicate flowers or smilax with lavender or gray ribbon on the door, instead of crepe.

Avoid all delay, hitch, or any misunderstanding among your assistants. Instruct bearers, drivers and others beforehand.

In some cases use Matting, and possibly a Tent, at the cemetery to keep off rain or intense sunlight. The bereaved will often appreciate such suggestion. Lining with evergreen helps very materially to make a grave seem less distressing during interment.

Paint or stain the Outside Box or Shipping Case.

At the funeral services the sermon precedes the speeches of lodge members, whose speeches are usually made at the grave. If societies attend in a body the principal services are held at the grave; Roman Catholic always at the church. Where both the WHITE SHRINE and the EASTERN STAR are represented, the WHITE SHRINE functions first, because the Commitment in the EASTERN STAR ceremony really concludes the service.

Order of funeral cortege is best arranged as follows: Minister's Automobile, Automobile with Pallbearers, Hearse, Chief mourners' Automobile and automobiles of friends. If Lodge members conduct the rites, the Lodge members lead the procession.

At military funerals place Flag on Casket with the field (stars) over left side of casket (indicating position over the heart). Poppies may be placed on the Flag but no other flowers. In procession in which flags are carried, the NATIONAL FLAG must always be carried to the right of all other flags, and in change of formation it must never be crossed with other flags.

Where the deceased is buried without any religious service, or where the mourners are unable to engage the services of a clergyman, the Funeral Director may officiate and offer the prayer. Still-borns are buried by the Funeral Director alone; it is unusual that any of the family attend the interment.

If remains are to be shipped, depart from the house, the funeral parlor or the church in time to reach the depot at least one hour before train time.

Where bodies are neither embalmed nor put on ice, keep in coolest place possible. Perhaps best is between two open windows, with the shades drawn down as far as needed; use a bleacher frequently over face and hands of the deceased. Where death resulted from a contagious disease, follow State regulations.

While the chief mourners are turning from the grave and the friends are still there, it is fitting that the Funeral Director, in behalf of the family, say a few words to their friends, expressing appreciation for their floral offerings and for their sympathy.

Let the entire funeral be conducted in a dignified and well-ordered manner, and you will have conferred a lasting favor upon those who required the need of your service. This is the best method of advertising which a Funeral Director can employ, and is the stepping stone for sure success.

IMPORTANT—READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY

1. WHO SHOULD FILE CLAIM.—If expenses of the veteran's burial and funeral have not been paid, claim should be filed by the undertaker or other creditor. If such expenses have been paid, claim should be filed by the person or persons whose personal funds were used to pay such expenses. If the expenses were paid from funds of the veteran's estate, claim should be filed by the executor or administrator thereof in which case there must also be submitted a copy of the letters of administration or letters testamentary certified over the signature and seal of the appointing court.

2. TIME LIMIT FOR FILING CLAIM.—Claim must be filed with the Veterans Administration within 2 years from the date of the veteran's burial or cremation, otherwise the burial allowance will not be payable.

3. CAREFUL EXECUTION OF CLAIM NECESSARY.—All of the information required in this application must be furnished and every question must be answered fully and clearly. Answers must be written in a clear, legible hand or typewritten. If you do not know the answer to any question, say so. If any of the questions are not clear and you desire further information before attempting to answer the question involved, you should write to the Veterans Administration for instructions.

4. EXECUTION OF CLAIM BY UNDERTAKING FIRM.—The claim of an undertaking firm or corporation must be executed in the full name of the firm or corporation and show the official position or connection with the firm or corporation of the individual who signs the claim in its behalf, e. g.:
STONE FUNERAL HOME
By: John Doe, President.

5. PROOF OF VETERAN'S DEATH TO ACOMPANY CLAIM.—The death of a veteran in a Government institution does not need to be proven

6. STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT TO ACOMPANY CLAIM.—This claim must be accompanied by a statement of account (preferably on the printed billhead of the undertaker) showing the name of the veteran for whom the services were performed; the cost of the service rendered; all credits; and the name of the person or persons by whom payment in whole or in part was made. Where death of the veteran occurred while receiving authorized Veterans Administration care, the statement of account should be itemized to show the charge or charges made for use of the hearse. WHERE TOTAL PAYMENT HAS BEEN MADE FOR THE SERVICES PERFORMED, THE STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT SHOULD BE RECEIPTED IN THE NAME OF THE FIRM OR INDIVIDUAL PERFORMING THE SERVICES.

7. BURIAL ASSOCIATION OR BURIAL INSURANCE BENEFITS.—If the deceased veteran was a member of a burial association or if any insurance company is obligated to pay all or any part of the burial expenses, Question 24 should be answered "Yes". It will then be necessary to support the claim with a statement from the association or insurance company setting forth the terms of the contract and how and with whom settlement was made.

8. Bills or receipts filed in support of this claim become a part of the permanent record and may NOT be returned.

9. NOTE.—The payment of any fee in the preparation of this claim is prohibited.

John Gordon Dies in Auto

By Staff Correspondent

SONOMA — A 63-year-old Agua Caliente man who suffered an attack while driving his car in Boyes Springs yesterday afternoon died last night at a Sonoma hospital.

John Gordon, of 17095 Park ave., was stricken on Highway 12 near Hawthorne ave.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Josephine Gordon, Agua Caliente.

Funeral arrangements are being made at Bates, Evans & Fehrensen.

Eventually a bystander realized that something was wrong and called the ambulance to rush him to the hospital.

He passed away a short time later.

Sheriff's Deputy Robert Townsend and Deputy Coronors Al Gordon and Robert Kelly of Bates, Evans & Fehrensen conducted an investigation and an autopsy was ordered by coroner Andrew Johanson.

Mr. Gordon, a native of Roumania, was a veteran of World War I, and had lived in California for the past 41 years. He was a member of West Twin Peaks Post No. 233, American Legion and eGorge Washington Lodge, F. & A.M., No. 525, both of San Francisco.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Josephine Gordon of Sonoma.

Although the highway was jammed with late-afternoon traffic at the time, Gordon was able to pull to the side of the road and stop his truck. Witnesses said he was slumped over the wheel of his pickup truck as the vehicle rolled to a stop.

A motorist who had followed Gordon's pickup for several miles said he appeared to be driving quite normally, when suddenly he slowed and pulled to the side of the road. The motorist glanced in the truck as he passed, saw Gordon slump over the wheel and stopped to investigate. Gordon appeared unconscious.

Deputy sheriffs and Norrbom's ambulance were called to the scene.

Onlookers, noting the traffic-jammed highway, marvelled that Gordon had been able to pull off the road without crashing into another auto, or striking a pedestrian.

A native of Romania, Gordon was a Veteran of World War I, and had worked as a gardener for 30 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Josephine Gordon, of 17095 Park Avenue. He was the father of John Harold Gordon, and David Lee Gordon of Sonoma, and the late Stephen M. Gordon and Joseph Gordon, and Mrs. Georgiana N. Free of San Luis Obispo.

A resident of California since 1919, and Sonoma County for the past four years he was a member of the American Legion, Post 233 from West Twin Peaks in San Francisco, and George Lodge, F & A.M.

In a reactionary capitalist country there might be another shoe shop down the street with a more accommodating manager or more skillful lasters. But the dictatorship of the proletariat has a way of taking care of such things to protect workers from "exploitation" and the state monopoly from competition.

The police of Tbilisi, capital of the Georgian republic in the southern part of the Soviet Union, recently arrested Azat K. Kazaryan for the crime of having built, for the second time, an elaborate underground tannery and leatherworking shop in which he and his wife and son produced both ordinary leather and "a soft variety for fancy shoes."

For the earlier offense he served "some years in prison"; such are the rewards of initiative where all means of production must be government-owned.

Somewhere in Marxist managerial experience there is likely to arise a consideration crassly known among bourgeois merchandisers as "pleasing the customer." For accomplishing that purpose and for unleashing native abilities, it is hard to improve on a system known as free enterprise.

mirable society, however, with noble objectives. It should prosper. The SACC is the Society for the Abolition of Christmas Cards.

Many persons will consider the society to be subversive. Some of my neighbors will caution their children to come indoors when I pass by. Old friends may cut me dead. Nevertheless, the Christmas Card must go. It is the costly vermiform appendix of the Christmas season.

These cards annually cost almost as much as the common cold; more than a Polaris submarine. Moreover, this annual avalanche engulfs and entraps the regular mail, causing more important matter — such as letters containing checks — to be lost in the shuffle for weeks, or even, for all time.

Talk about waste! The stamp bill alone would build a lot of schools. For printing, more is spent than for stamps. The patient postmen are hump-backed for lugging sacks of cards, and they suffer fallen arches, corns and bunions by reason of the extra mileage our Christmas whimsy imposes on them.

There are upright citizens (your correspondent is one) with the courage to chuck the shackles of Christmas cardery but who regularly receive cards in shoals. More in sorrow than in anger we know that among our loving friends are some with the lint-picking habit of card indexing the whole Christmas card shambles so that during the days immediately following Dec. 25 there occur in livreal pretty.

Frank: Yeah, they must mailed after they got ours.

The L W: look in the index, d and see if they sent to us last y. Bet they didn't.

Frank: Nope, nor the year bef either. I'll take 'em off the list.

The L W: No, leave 'em on, let's send a real cheap card next y and mail it after Christmas.

It is the women, of course, v keep the Christmas card business ing, wailing before, during and af the process of selecting and addre ing their offerings that it is an inf nal chore. If women had the coura of their convictions and the slight gift for collective action among the selves, the Christmas card would dead and gone.

Perhaps women will gain the co age some day. But gain the gift of lective action, never! It isn't in th There are women — the smartest their sex — who know and conc this lack among themselves and th sisters. Hence the popularity a membership of another organizat long well-established here, the SP GIGMTT.

The SPWGIGMTT is translat The Sodality For Preventing Wor Gathering In Groups Of More Th Three. In clubs, leagues and st women do gather, of course, bey the proper numbers. But the rec of the journals and minutes of th meetings would demonstrate the tility of feminine collectivity. El they would have squashed the Chri mas card, long since.

Elmer Ghiggioli Slain, Daughters Critical

Chamberlain Charged With Murder in Sonoma Shooting

Tragedy struck two Sonoma families Monday, leaving a father dead; his two daughters critically wounded, and an apparently unrepentent killer in jail.

Elmer Ghiggioli, 60, was shot to death and his two daughters, Sharon, 13, and Sandra, 6, lay near death, wounded by a fusillade of bullets from the pistol of William B. Chamberlain, 33, of 728 Verano Avenue, in a senseless attack which seemingly lacked provocation.

Ghiggioli's stepson, James Morgan, 21, an airman stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base, was also wounded by the killer.

According to the report from the Sonoma County Sheriff's office, the attack began at the Ghiggioli home at 424 Denmark Street, at approximately 7:30 p. m., when Chamberlain knocked at the door and Sharon answered it.

Chamberlain reportedly tried to get the girl to come outside with him, and grabbed her and kissed her.

When she repulsed his advances, he slapped her and she broke away and ran into the bedroom screaming to her parents that he (Chamberlain) had a gun in his possession.

Mr. and Mrs. Ghiggioli were in bed with their other daughter, Sandra, between them when the man burst into the room with the .22 pistol drawn.

Mrs. Ghiggioli jumped from the bed and hid in a closet and her husband jumped toward Chamberlain as he started shooting. Mr. Ghiggioli was struck in the head and died almost instantly, and Chamberlain continued shooting until the gun was empty, hitting Sharon twice in the abdomen and once in the arm, and Sandra, who was under the covers, in the head, arm and chest in the burst of gunfire.

The killer apparently fled after he had emptied the gun, and shortly afterwards, Airman Morgan arrived at home with his date in the family car.

He parked in the driveway and got out to fix the hood which had come unlatched, unaware of the tragedy that had occurred to his family, when he heard someone walking in the graveled driveway.

When he turned around to investigate, a shot was fired from a short distance away, striking him in the left arm.

Morgan fled across a field to the home of Dr. Ronald Scott on MacArthur Street, and Dr. Scott called the hospital and the police.

In the meantime Mrs. Ghiggioli fled the house and across the field to a neighbor's home where she called Sgt. Clarke McIntosh of the Sonoma Police Department, who radioed the sheriff's office.

When Sgt. Ted Ries and Deputy William Weyl of the sheriff's department arrived they were met at the door by Sharon who let them in.

Sgt. Ries said he noticed the girl clutching her stomach and when she turned around he saw blood on her clothing.

She directed them to the bedroom where they found Mr. Ghiggioli on the floor with the baby on top of him, and an ambulance call was radioed.

A search then began for the killer and he was found hiding in a tree in the yard of Martin Cullinan across the street from the Ghiggioli house.

He was placed under arrest and taken to the County Jail.

Chamberlain could give no coherent reason for the senseless shooting except to say that he "had my reasons," and to indicate that he was upset at the Ghiggioli's treatment of the Chamberlain children during times when they had served as baby-sitters for them.

The two children were taken to the Sonoma Valley Hospital by Norrbom's Ambulance service where physicians worked through the night to keep them alive.

Sandra was later transferred to Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital where she is reported holding her own but still on the critical list, and a hospital spokesman said that she is beginning to respond to her surroundings.

Sharon was reported still critical but improved at the Sonoma Valley Hospital.

Piecing the story together, investigating officers learned that Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain with their children had driven over to visit the Cullinans and their children, and that Chamberlain had taken the nine-shot .22 pistol with him.

Witnesses said that Chamberlain appeared to be disturbed, and that at first he didn't enter the Cullinan home but remained outside for a time. He finally came in for a few moments, then left again saying he would be back later.

It was apparently at this time that he went over to the Ghiggioli home.

Chamberlain showed no remorse in the County Jail when told that he had killed the father and wounded the two children.

Questioned on the reasons for the shooting, he said only that the Ghiggioli girl had "taught my little girls to do bad sexual things."

Sheriff John Ellis said that the story had no basis in fact, and that the Chamberlain children were well taken care of while they were with the Ghiggiolis.

Chamberlain, who claims to hold a degree in hypno-therapy and reportedly maintains an office in San Francisco, had been separated from his wife and the couple had recently reconciled. During the separation, the children stayed with the Ghiggioli family much of the time.

Chamberlain's mother, Mrs. Simone Berges of 775 Verano Avenue, was prostrated with grief when she learned of the tragedy, and could give no explanation or motive for the act.

Her son grew up in the Valley, attending local schools, and has worked at various business establishments in Sonoma including the Bank of America, for Whitehead Motors as an auto salesman, and formerly operated the service station at Norrbom's Chevrolet. He worked at the Sonoma Golf and Country Club before going to San Francisco.

Mr. Ghiggioli was employed by the Sonoma Valley Cheese Factory on Spain Street as a milk and cream tester, and formerly worked at the old Chamberlain Ranch on Stage Gulch Road.

He was a native of California, and described by friends and neighbors as a "hard-working family man."

He is survived by his wife, Frances, his two daughters and step-son, and his other step-sons, Arthur Cyril Morgan of Point Reyes, LeRoy Morgan and James E. Morgan of Sonoma; his brothers, Tilden Ghiggioli and Ludwig Ghiggioli of Sonoma, Oliver Ghiggioli of Sacramento; his sisters, Mrs. Josephine Guisto of Napa, Mrs. John Novo of San Francisco, and Mrs. Emily DelPonte of Sonoma.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. tomorrow at the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehresen, Sonoma, with the Rev. Martin Knutsen officiating.

'Guard Duty' Sentence For Youths Who

Four unwise valley youths today wish they had never conceived the idea of stealing one of the three Wise Men statues from the Sonoma Plaza Christmas manger scene, early last Thursday morning.

For not only is the statue back in the Plaza, but so are the four young men—sentenced to guard the manger and occupants against other would-be Wise Men snatchers, from six o'clock at night until six in the a.m.

stead, sentenced the quartet, ranging in age from 18 to 22, to 15 days in jail after they pleaded guilty to petty theft—but suspended the sentence and placed the youths on summary probation to the Sonoma Police Department, with the stipulation that they must guard the Plaza Christmas scene—each standing a 3-hour "around the clock" watch, starting December 23 at 6 p.m. through 6 a.m. Tuesday, January 3, when the Yule decorations are scheduled to be removed from the Plaza.

Arrested and pleading guilty to the petty theft charge were Gail Alan Kenner, 22, Boyes Springs; Clifford Johns, 20, Boyes Springs; Anthony Davis Reed, 19, Boyes Springs; and Gary Mazza, 18, Robinson Rd., Sonoma.

An alert passerby brought about the chain of events leading up to the apprehension of the youths. He spotted two of them on top of the roof of Polidori's Variety Store in Boyes Springs shortly before 1 a.m. Thursday, and notified sheriff's deputies who ordered the youths—Mazza and Johns—off the roof at gunpoint.

The two, who had a rope, to take a walk and get some air first.

Meanwhile, at the Ghiggioli home, Mr. and Mrs. Ghiggioli had retired early because Mrs. Ghiggioli was not feeling well. They were in the master bedroom and had little Sandra in bed with them. Sharon was still up.

About 7 p. m., Sharon heard a knock on the door and when she answered, Chamberlain was standing there.

Chamberlain, described as an "odd" person by acquaintances, asked the girl to go to his car with him, but she refused.

He then grabbed and kissed her and once again asked her to go with him and she refused.

Chamberlain brandished the revolver. Sharon screamed and ran into her parents' bedroom. Chamberlain followed.

Mr. Ghiggioli got out of bed and met Chamberlain at the bedroom door.

Chamberlain said he just wanted to talk. Instead, he raised the pistol and shot Mr. Ghiggioli in the forehead.

He kept on shooting. He hit Sandra, who was in bed under the covers in the head, arm and chest. Sharon was hit twice in the abdomen and once in the arm.

Mrs. Ghiggioli was saved, apparently because by this time Chamberlain's pistol was empty.

About that time, Airman Morgan, Mrs. Ghiggioli's son by a former marriage, drove to the house and parked his car in the driveway, unaware of the tragedy inside the house.

He went into the garage to get a screwdriver to fix his car. As he came out of the garage, he heard footsteps in the gravel and saw a shadow.

Then Chamberlain fired at him, striking him in the upper arm.

The airman fled on foot. He ran almost a half mile to the home of a physician who called authorities.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Ghiggioli also fled the house in her night clothes and went to the home of a neighbor, who also called for help.

When Sgt. Ted Ries and Deputy William Weyl arrived they found Chamberlain hiding in a tree in Mr. Cullinan's yard.

He surrendered. But by this time Chamberlain had reloaded the pistol and told the deputies later he seriously considered shooting them too.

Mrs. Ghiggioli, who was hysterical and unable to be questioned last night, remained at the home of friends while her daughters were taken by ambulance to Sonoma Valley Hospital.

Sandra later was transferred to Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital. Sharon is unconscious in the Sonoma hospital.

The Cullinans and Mrs. Chamberlain told deputies they heard no shots although the two homes are only a few yards apart.

Chamberlain identified himself as a hypnotist with offices in San Francisco.

However, friends of Chamberlain say he is a waiter in San Francisco and commutes daily. Others who know him say he is a used car salesman and at one time was employed as a bartender in the Sonoma area.

Chamberlain was booked on a murder charge and was to be arraigned in Santa Rosa Municipal Court today or tomorrow.

Schloredt likes to run and he has the equipment. He is 6 feet tall, weighs 195 pounds and likes to crash around end on the roll-out play. He's a body contact man and plays a crunching defensive game. One Dead, Two Girls Critical

'No Motive' In Gunning Down Family Of Elmer Ghiglioli

By GWEN FRANKEL
Daily Review City Editor

William L. Chamberlain, a hypnotist who claims a Ph.D. degree, walked coolly into the darkened bedroom of a Sonoma man last night and opened fire with a .22 revolver.

When the revolver was empty, Elmer Ghiglioli, a hard-working father of three, lay dead and his two young daughters lay near death. Chamberlain then turned and walked from the Ghiglioli home at 424 Denmark Street, crossed the road and climbed a tree, where he reloaded his revolver.

Ghiglioli, age "about 60," died instantly with bullets in his abdomen and head, both fired at close range, according to County Coroner Andrew Johansen.

His 12-year-old daughter Sharon was in critical condition this morning at Sonoma Valley Hospital with wounds in the stomach and arm; his six-year-old daughter Sandra was reported conscious but "still critical" this morning at Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital with bullets in the head and back. There were no plans to take her into surgery today, according to hospital spokesmen.

Ghiglioli's wife Frances, who had been in the same bed with her husband and youngest daughter, somehow escaped the deadly spray of bullets in the dark and ran out the back door after Chamberlain had turned on his heel and calmly walked out the front door.

She had recognized the assailant as her part-time employer, William Chamberlain, 32, who, according to Sheriff John Ellis, operated a "hypno-therapy" service in San Francisco. Mrs. Ghiglioli and Sharon had baby-sat with Chamberlain's two children here frequently in the past months.

Chamberlain spent most of his time in San Francisco, but came home to visit his wife and children on special occasions. He had done so for Christmas.

The senseless crime began to unfold at 7:30 last night when Chamberlain knocked on the door of the Ghiglioli home, the revolver tucked under his belt.

Sharon answered the door. Chamberlain asked her to step outside, whereupon he grabbed her and kissed her.

She resisted and he slapped her across the face. She then broke away and ran into the bedroom where her mother, father and young sister had retired for the night.

Chamberlain followed her, the gun drawn.

Moments after the slaughter, Mrs. Ghiglioli, whose husband was an uncle of sheriff's deputy Del Del Ponte, phoned the sheriff's office as Chamberlain silently reloaded his revolver in a tree across the street.

Just then James Morgan, 20-year-old step-son of Ghiglioli drove up to the family home and opened the hood of his car to check on some engine trouble. As he bent over the motor, Chamberlain climbed down from the tree, crossed the street and, without uttering a word, shot Morgan in the arm.

Unaware of what had happened inside the home, Morgan, an airman stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base, ran to a nearby doctor's home for treatment, according to Sheriff Ellis.

Ellis said that Chamberlain then marched back across the street and resumed his post in the tree.

By this time, sheriff's deputies Ted Ries and Bill Weyle arrived at the home, unaware that the revolver was trained on them from across the street. Next to arrive were Bob Hayes and Joseph Cozzolino of the sheriff's office.

When Chamberlain was spotted in the tree, he threw down his gun and surrendered without protest.

Ghiglioli, an employee of Vella's Cheese Co. in Sonoma, was taken to Bates, Evans and Fehrsen Funeral Home.

Mrs. Ghiglioli is under sedation at the home of a neighbor.

Sheriff's deputies planned to question Mrs. Chamberlain this morning in an effort to establish some motive for the baffling holiday tragedy.

Chamberlain readily confessed the crime, according to Ellis, but offered no "sensible explanations."

He showed no signs of emotion when he was told that he had killed Ghiglioli and critically wounded the two girls. He did, however, express surprise that he had missed Mrs. Ghiglioli.

Chamberlain resided at 728 Verano Drive with his wife and two children, a boy, age one and a half, and a girl, age five. During the week, however, he lived in San Francisco, where he operated the San Francisco Institute of Hypno-Therapy on Gough Street, according to the sheriff's office.

Ghiglioli, described by his friends and neighbors as a hard-working family man, had been employed for many

'PRAY FOR THIS POOR FAMILY, PRAY FOR MY SON,' MOTHER SOBS

"Pray for this poor family, pray for my son — Oh God, help us."

These are the words of Mrs. Simone Berges, mother of William Chamberlain, the local man who has confessed the tragic gunning-down of the family of Elmer Ghiglioli.

"Oh why did he do this?" the mother sobbed. "Can you tell me why . . . oh those poor people . . . pray for them"

The mother was going to Santa Rosa today to try and speak with her son. "I've got to talk to him to find out why . . . I wonder if he will talk to me."

The question of "why" is also being asked by sheriff's deputies.

Mrs. Berges, who lives at 775 Verano Ave., hinted her son was having domestic trouble with his wife. Her son's family lives at 728 Verano avenue.

Chamberlain is well known locally, having attended local elementary and high schools. He worked for the Bank of America ten years ago, formerly operated the service station at Norrbom's Chevrolet, and also worked as an automobile salesman. He was employed at the Sonoma Golf and Country Club before he began work in San Francisco.

His mother said he commuted daily to his San Francisco job. She said she had not seen her son recently, but knew he was "troubled."

Mrs. Berges was torn with grief and horror.

"I know he did this horrible thing . . . but why. And these poor people, Oh my God . . . help them," she sobbed.

Blanketing British Character

The British hot water bottle, according to a portentous report from London, is about to give way to the electric blanket and apparently without a whimper about the transition being un-British.

This development is going to change the face of Britain, especially in those dark and troubled hours when it has been intermittently contorted by the effort of the British foot to locate a peripatetic stone jug at the nether end of the mattress.

It would be unfair, of course, to leave the reader with the impression that between the stone-jug period and the electronic age Britannia stood still, horizontally as it were, on a paleolithic foot-warmer. No, the British genius for substituting evolution for revolution has not been confined to politics. It has found expression also in that nation's hot water bottles.

Among these, a bullet-shaped copper one is virtually radioactive with heat. And rubber bottles have sprouted plush surfaces. If the electric blanket had not intervened, the velvet hot water bottle would surely have acquired ermine trimmings.

But these last achievements have been short-circuited (pardon the expression) by the spread (shall we say?) of the electric blanket. Doubtless there will always be an England, but succumbing to comforts like this, the British will soon be almost indistinguishable from the rest of civilized mankind.

Millionaire Fire Buff Becomes Severe Critic Of Navy Fire Prevention

BY JACK V. FOX
United Press International

A millionaire fire buff has been one of the navy's severest critics of the housekeeping at the Brooklyn Navy Yard where a $75 million holocaust killed 49 men on the carrier Constellation.

He is Edward F. Cavanagh Jr., 52, for the past seven years Fire Commissioner of New York.

A socialite, graduate of Harvard Law School with a 25-room mansion at Glen Cove, Long Island, Cavanagh would seem a least likely general for New York's 11,000 firemen. But one thing that sets off his Irish temper is a suggestion the post is a "hobby."

The mark of intensity he puts into the job is visible in his hair. It was jet black when he took office. Now it is gray. He is on the scene at every big fire and — in these winter months — that averages about two nights a week long past midnight.

Cavanagh was in command at the tragic Brooklyn jet plane crash into a row of tenements and again at the Constellation fire. He has expressed astonishment at the Navy's use of wooden scaffolding for its workers inside the hull.

A blunt man, Cavanagh has long contended that 90 per cent of all fires could be avoided with proper precautions and in his first four years as New York Commissioner the city's total fires dropped from 54,000 to 43,000 annually.

Cavanagh's father, a real estate man, was a fire buff, too. From the age of four the boy was taken by his dad to disasters. He hung around old Engine House 211 in Brooklyn in the days when horse-drawn engines made fire-fighting even more spectacular.

Cavanagh says the fire he remembers most vividly was the one at the Brooklyn candy factory in 1915.

"I was seven at the time and it was the first mass death I had ever seen," he recalls. "Young girls were jumping from windows and being burned to death. It was revolting. Fourteen girls were killed because doors were locked, fire escapes blocked and someone had put syrup, which burns like grease, on the stairway."

He went to Georgetown University, then to Harvard and practiced law from 1932 until 1941 when he went into the Army, coming out with rank of lieutenant colonel. Then Mayor William O'Dwyer persuaded him to take the top fire job in 1954 at a salary of $25,000.

At his side has one of the most costly pieces of equipment in the city — a "firephane" silver from the great Chinese.

His London, New York City and the city's fire department in constant contact.

"This is a task man's job," he says. "It's fires and fire prevention."

Red China Steps Up Diplomatic Effort To Gain Friends In Asia

BY PETER CRAIGMOE
United Press International

Red China is stepping up its efforts on the diplomatic front in a renewed attempt to win support for the cause of neutrality in Southeast Asia.

The latest step is a diplomatic pincer movement around Laos that could well be aimed at weakening support for the pro-western government of Premier Prince Boun Oum of Champassak.

The Peiping regime appears determined to win over both Burma and Cambodia to a leftist-leaning neutral cause. The effect would be to create two more in the slowly increasing bloc of buffer states along Red China's soft underbelly.

The move, if successful, would leave the communist regime just a little better prepared for the threat of renewed aggression on the military front — should the Peiping rulers choose.

odum Sihanouk. The Chinese Premier's flight to Burma was to be made in return for Burmese Premier U Nu's visit to Peiping Oct. 1, where they signed a Sino-Burmese border treaty.

Diplomatically, both visits were correct. But the size of and composition of Chou En-Lai's 400-man delegation left little doubt the visit would be a major diplomatic offensive to win goodwill of the Burmese population.

Details of Liu Shao-Chi's Cambodia trip were not revealed. It appeared likely the tour would be coupled with an exchange of instruments of ratification of a non-aggression treaty signed between Red China and Cambodia on Monday. Chou's Burma visit was announced in conjunction with an exchange of documents of the Sino-Burmese border treaty.

Because both Burma and Cambodia border on troubled Laos, their sympathy for the Peiping regime would be considered a loss of prestige for the

Laos, A Land Without A Railroad Battle Ground Between

BY PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

As a piece of real estate, Laos has no railroad, scarcely more than footpaths for roads and a few grassy strips that pass as air fields. Its wild mountains work against large-scale military maneuvers either for or against invasion.

Its people have no great political consciousness such as in, say West Berlin.

Yet in Southeast Asia, Laos has a moral value approaching the equal of Berlin or South Korea in the battle to contain communist aggression.

And how the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO), of which the United States is a charter member, reacts to the attempted red take-over of Laos could well have just as much effect on Asians as would be the effect on Europeans in a similar situation against Berlin.

This is an effect well recognized in Washington and other SEATO capitals, most of whom already have declared their willingness to act either on a call for help from the Laotian government or in case of proven outside communist aggression.

It is recognized by Red China in its pledge of its "utmost efforts" to stop "U.S. imperialism's intervention and aggression in Laos."

And it also is recognized among Laos's neutral neighbors who are showing increasing nervousness over the possibility that in Laos another Korea may develop.

'Happy Killer' Slays Man In Sonoma' Wounds Three

Two Girls Critical; Motive Not Clear

An arrogant, smiling, self-styled hypnotist went berserk with a pistol last night, killing a Sonoma man and wounding three others, two critically.

Sonoma County authorities today were seeking a motive for the tragedy which occurred about 7 p. m. in the quiet home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ghiggoli, 424 Denmark st., south of Sonoma.

Mr. Ghiggoli, 60, a Valley Cheese factory employe, was struck in the head with a slug from a .22 revolver and died almost instantly.

His two daughters, Sharon, 13, and Sandra, 6, were hit three times each and are in critical condition today. Sandra was given only a slight chance to survive.

Shortly after the mass shooting inside the neat, stucco house, Mr. Ghiggoli's stepson, James Morgan 21, an airman, arrived and he, too, fell victim, suffering a wound in the arm.

Sheriff's deputies found the assailant hiding in the branches of a tree across the street from the Ghiggoli home and he surrendered quietly.

The man is William Berges Chamberlain, 33, of 765 Verano dr., who identified himself as a "hypno-therapist." He is married and has three small children.

Chamberlain, dapper and mustachioed, admitted the shooting to authorities but his reasons weren't clear.

No Regrets

Chamberlain's demeanor appeared to be out of context with the situation and he displayed no remorse.

While being booked in Sonoma County Jail he smiled. When a photographer took his picture, he postured and smiled wrapping an arm casually around Undersheriff Joseph Cozzolino.

"Wait'll I comb my hair," he told photographers as he straightened his tie.

Sheriff John A. Ellis, who is heading the investigation, sent some of his officers to Sonoma today to question several persons, including Chamberlain's wife and Mr. Ghiggoli's wife.

Mrs. Ghiggoli, who apparently also was an intended victim, escaped injury by hiding in a closet behind some table leaves and later fled from the house in her nightgown.

From what deputies could piece together, Mrs. Ghiggoli and Sharon were the principal objects of Chamberlain's attack.

Both had baby sat for the Chamberlain children and Chamberlain reportedly was ires at the alleged treatment of his children by the Chiggiolis.

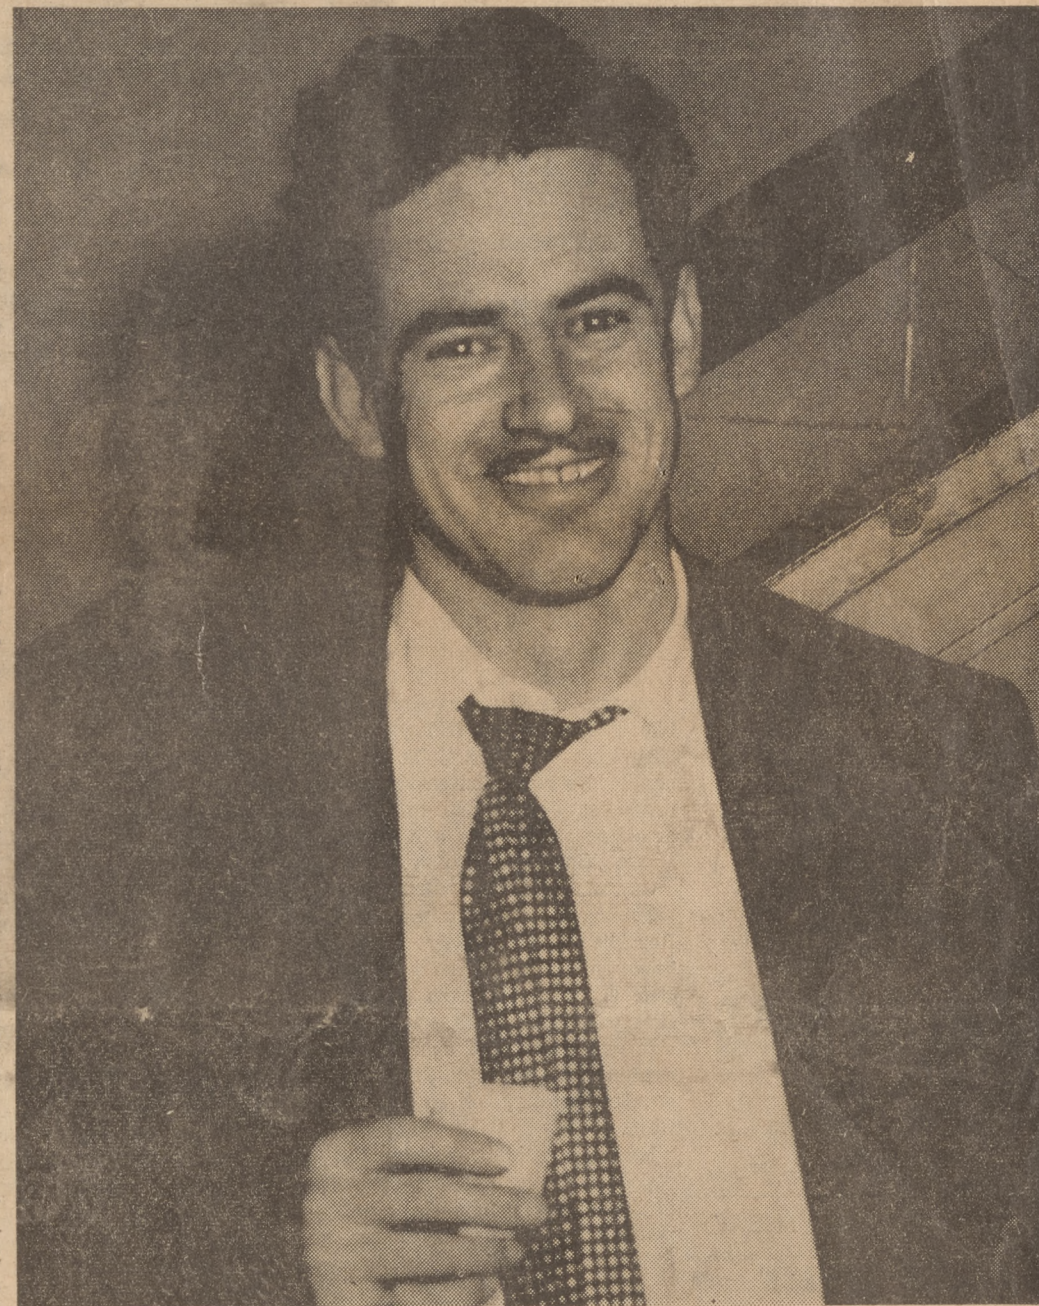

Sheriff Ellis said when Chamberlain left his house last night with his wife and children to visit the Chiggiolis' neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cullinan, 425 Denmark st., he took the nine-shot .22 pistol with him.

Visit Neighbors

From what deputies could gather from Chamberlain and other persons, the Chamberlains arrived at the Cullians shortly before 7 p.m.

Mrs. Chamberlain and the children went into the house to visit, but Chamberlain said he wanted

COME ON NOW! There must be some money—even as little as a dollar—left which can be used for such a worthy cause as the Santa Rosa United Crusade. 'Mr. Big' Democrat In Wyoming Succumbs

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (UPI)—Tracy S. McCracken, a hustling newsmen who built a publishing empire and dominated the Democratic party in Wyoming for two decades, died Monday night—less than a month after he turned down an appointment to the U.S. Senate because he loved his state and his profession. He was 66.

The handsome, gruff-voiced McCracken was the victim of an intestinal attack that struck Christmas Day. Three attending physicians, who had not completed a diagnosis, were preparing him for emergency surgery when he died at 10:10 p.m. MST.

He became ill about noon Sunday and was hospitalized at 10 o'clock that night. He was given almost continuous transfusions of blood until his death. His wife and two sons were with him at the end.

McCracken, once referred to by a national magazine as Wyoming's "Mr. Big," was Democratic national committeeman for Wyoming since 1942. His last year of service to the party brought him two satisfying triumphs—he cast Wyoming's votes at the Democratic National Convention that nominated John F. Kennedy for president and he was offered the appointment to the Senate.

Gov. J. J. Hickey offered the appointment to McCracken after Republican Senator-elect Keith Thomson died of a heart attack Dec. 9. When McCracken refused, Hickey announced he would resign and accept the appointment himself from his successor, Democratic Secretary of State Jack Gage.

McCracken said he rejected the appointment because he wanted to live in Wyoming and, "I love newspapering more than any form of endeavor."

Sub-Zero Weather Sets Teeth Chattering in East

By United Press International
A near-record cold wave hit the north central part of the nation today after an almost balmy Christmas weekend.

The bitter cold pushed temperatures down to 35 below zero at Detroit Lakes, Minn., and 31 below at Fargo, N.D., close to Fargo's record December low of 36 below set in the 1880s.

Jamestown and Devils Lake in North Dakota shuddered in 25-below weather. It was 24 below at Bemidji and International Falls in Minnesota and 7 below at Grantsburg, Wis.

Snow, whipped by strong northwesterly winds, was expected to sweep into Illinois and Indiana by nightfall, followed by the new cold front.

The gate was opened for the new cold blast Monday by a low pressure center in Wyoming that spawned light snows and steadily dropping temperatures from the central Rockies through the Midwest and south into North Carolina.

From highs near 60 degrees Monday in parts of the Midwest, temperatures plummeted to near 10 degrees at nightfall. They were expected to edge near zero to night.

The sudden temperature drop re-froze slushy snows creating an icy road hazard for homeward bound holiday motorists.

Los Angeles residents, meanwhile, basked in 80 degree weather Monday after "cool" 71 degree temperatures on Christmas Day.

Light showers were forecast today for the Pacific Northwest and parts of Florida and the Carolinas. Fair skies and little temperature changes were expected elsewhere.

Building Down In Sonoma County

Building permits in Sonoma County as well as the nine-county Bay Area declined last month, according to the San Francisco field office of the U.S. Department of Commerce.

There were only 650 permits issued in the incorporated areas of Sonoma County (the county government hasn't begun reporting permits in unincorporated sections), compared with 2,123 in October, 1960, and 1,037 in November, 1959.

Petaluma fell from 502 in November last year to 79 in November this year. Santa Rosa dropped from 487 to 327 and Sebastopol from 30 to 2, but in Cloverdale building boomed to 183 last month from a mere one building permit issued in the corresponding month in 1959.

The trend was also counteracted in Healdsburg and Sonoma, where substantial building permit increases were reported.

The number of building permits issued for new dwelling units in the nine-county Bay Area in November was 3,357 compared with 3,939 in October and 2,884 in November a year ago. All counties

More Gas For PG&E In 1961

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—New energy from Canadian natural gas and strides forward in atomic energy development will make 1961 a significant year of progress for Northern California, according to the president of Pacific Gas and Electric.

Norman R. Sutherland today outlined PG&E's prospects for growth next year in a year-end statement.

He said that deliveries of Canadian gas, initially at a rate of 415 million cubic feet a day beginning next winter, will supplement PG&E's present supplies from fields in California, Texas and New Mexico, and will increase peak-day supplies by more than 20 per cent.

The gas will be transported from fields in Alberta to the San Francisco Bay Area through a 1,400-mile, 36-inch diameter pipeline, CALIFORNIA—Northern California weather will be fair through Tuesday except for local fog, particularly in the Central Valley.

A strong high pressure center was charted in southern British Columbia today and a ridge of high pressure extended southward off the West Coast of the United States. The pressure was relatively high over most of the Far West. In the Pacific, one low pressure center was drifting northwestward near the Alaskan Peninsula and a second low center about 1,300 miles west of Crescent City was moving northeastward toward the Gulf of Alaska.

High temperatures in the Central Valley Monday were near 40 degrees while Eureka reported 53, San Francisco 46, Los Angeles 79, and San Diego 73. Low readings this morning were generally between 34 and 44.

Succumbs After Long Illness

Louis Fassio is Mourned

Sonoma Valley this week mourned the passing of Louis P. Fassio, co-owner of the Sonoma Poultry and Egg Dealer firm and well-known Kiwanis Club member.

Mr. Fassio died on Sunday morning at Sonoma Valley Hospital at the age of 51. For nearly three years he had fought a valiant battle against the serious illness which claimed his life. He was under the constant care of his devoted wife, Evelyn, and had been at home until the day before his death.

The fun-loving "Louie," as he was known to his fellow Kiwanians, served as sergeant-at-arms of the Kiwanis Club for several terms and his good-natured kidding made paying of "fines" painless for club members.

A sport enthusiast, he was the perennial manager of the Kiwanis softball team which plays an annual benefit game (Continued on Page 2) in the poultry and egg business was I. S. (Sam) Shinsky. Mr. Fassio was a resident of Sonoma Valley for more than 33 years.

He is survived by his wife, Evelyn Fassio, and his sons, Robert Fassio and Edward Fassio, all of Sonoma; and was the brother of John Fassio and Harry Fassio, both of Sonoma, Fred Fassio of Salinas, Mrs. Doris Jovich of Turlock, and Mrs. Rita Hardy of Monterey.

Mr. Fassio was also the grandfather of Lori Fassio of Sonoma.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrens followed by a Requiem Mass at St. Francis Solano Church.

Recitation of the Rosary was Monday evening at the funeral chapel.

Temporary entombment was in the Mountain Cemetery, Sonoma.

Contributions to the Cancer Fund are preferred.

Card of Thanks

LOUIS P. FASSIO

We want to take this opportunity to express our heartfelt thanks to our relatives, friends and acquaintances for their personal messages and kind deeds in the passing of our beloved husband and father; also for the many floral tributes, prayers, donations and the many acts of kindness that helped make our family's bereavement easier to bear.

We especially want to thank Dr. Price, Dr. Titus and Dr. Mollenhauer for their medical and personal care. Thanks to Rev. Guido J. Divini, Rev. Charles Sullivan and Rev. John S. Roberts for their understanding and to Bates, Evans and Fehrens for the handling of the funeral services and arrangements.

Card of Thanks

ROBERT B. GOWANS
I want to take this opportunity to thank the many friends who, by their acts of kindness, floral tributes, contributions to charities, spiritual bouquets and prayers, helped me to bear the burden of my recent bereavement.

I especially want to thank our friends in the Valley of the Moon Vintage Festival with whom we had both worked over the years for their gestures of friendship, to the Masonic Lodge, the Sonoma Valley Improvement Club and the American Legion for their kind help at a time of greatest need. Words cannot really explain the complete gratitude that I feel toward everyone, your kindnesses were appreciated. I especially wish to thank Dr. Mollenhauer, Bates, Evans & Fehrensens Funeral-Directors and Norrbom Ambulance Service, Sonoma Valley Hospital, as well as the Veterans Facilities for the fine care my late husband, Bob Gowans, received at their hands.

Gen. Hale, AF Hero Dies Here

Private services were held on Monday from the Bates, Evans & Fehrensen funeral home for Major General Willis H. Hale who died Saturday night at his home in Mission Highlands, Sonoma.

General Hale, who was 68, retired from the Air Force in 1952 after a 39-year career that included leadership of all land-based planes in the Pacific during World War II.

He commanded three Air Forces in his career—the Seventh, during World War II, the First at Mitchell Field, N.Y., and the Fourth at Hamilton Air Force Base. The Seventh is best remembered. Although it became an outstanding fighting unit by war's end, when General Hale took it over in 1942 it had so few bombers available for combat that its fliers called themselves "Hale's Handful."

General Hale led the force personally in key missions, including an attack on Japanese phosphate works on Nauru Island and the first raid on Tarawa. He won the Navy Cross for the Nauru and Tarawa missions and the Distinguished Service Medal for his performance in the Battle of Midway.

He was also awarded the Legion of Merit twice, once by the Army and once by the Navy; the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Bronze Star and the Air Medal.

General Hale, a native of Pittsburg, Kansas, joined the Philippines Constabulary in 1913 as a lieutenant after attending Kansas State College.

Four years later, he was commissioned in the United States Army as a third lieutenant, a grade that no longer exists, and was sent to China with the 15th Infantry. He served in France in the last eight months of World War I.

He transferred to the Air Corps in 1924 after completing pilot training at Kelly Field, San Antonio, Texas.

General Hale was sent to Honolulu a month after Pearl Harbor. He first commanded the VII Bomber Command, then the Seventh Air Force and, after 1944, all Army, Navy and Marine land-baser aircraft in the Pacific Theater.

He remained on military duty for 39 years, retiring following extensive surgery for cancer.

He was a 32nd Degree Mason and a member of the Bohemian Club of San Francisco; Army-Navy Club, Washington, D. C., and Lotus Club, New York.

He is survived by his wife, the former Francis Whiting of Washington, D. C.; two daughters, Barbara Miller of Sunnyvale and Eveleth of Lancaster (Los Angeles Co.); four grandchildren, and a brother, Colonel Harry Hale.

General and Mrs. Hale came to Sonoma after his retirement in 1952 and built an attractive home in Mission Highlands. Although he was never in top health following his cancer operations, this fact did not keep the likeable General from participating in community affairs.

He was a member of the Sonoma Kiwanis Club, served as a chairman of the Cancer Society fund campaign here and took part in other civic projects.

Inurnment was Monday at Santa Rosa Memorial Park.

Thora Nielsen, James Edward Graves

In a beautiful double-ring ceremony at the Sonoma Methodist Church on March 12, Miss Thora Nielsen of Sonoma became the bride of James Edward Graves of Sonoma with the Rev. Wayne Williams uniting the young couple in the nuptial ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mikael Nielsen of 21831 Eighth Street East, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Graves of 584 Studley Avenue.

Radiantly lovely in her bridal taffeta gown trimmed with Alecon lace, seed pearls, and peacock train, and wearing a fingertip veil crowned with a pearl tion corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a plum colored dress with white accessories and carnation corsage.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Joseph Graves, and acting as ushers were Andrew Tomassi, Jack Nielsen, Bob Small and Gene Smith, all attired in white dinner jackets.

For luck the bride carried a penny in her shoe, and wore a blue garter, and a pearl necklace keepsake.

After the wedding a reception was held at the Veterans' Memorial Building, in a reception hall, artistically decorated by Mrs. LeRoy Graves and Betty Petroski.

Tables were decorated with stock and gladiolas, with the main table set with a lace cloth over a satin piece, upon which was the lovely four-tiered wedding cake.

The bride's uncle, Jack Cummins proposed the toast to the young couple and her aunt, Mrs. Cummins helped cut and serve the cake to go with the buffet of coffee and punch.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Carmel, San Bernardino and Disneyland, and for her going away costume, the new Mrs. Graves wore a beige silk dress with green accessories and orchid corsage.

They will live temporarily in a rented house on Spain Street while they are building their new home on Orange Avenue in El Verano.

The bride was a 1960 graduate of Sonoma Valley High School, and is presently with Graves Wholesale in Sonoma.

Her husband graduated from SVHS in 1958 and is also associated with Graves Wholesale.

Out of town guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs.

Gen. Willis Hale Dies in Sonoma

SONOMA, March 25 — Major General Willis H. Hale, who retired from the Air Force in 1952 after a career that included leadership of all land-based planes in the Pacific during World War II, died yesterday in his home near Sonoma.

General Hale was 68.

He commanded three Air Forces in his career — the Seventh during World War II, the First at Mitchell Field, N. Y., and the Fourth at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The Seventh was an impressive fighting unit by the end of the war, but when General Hale took it over in 1942 it had so few bombers available for combat that its fliers called themselves "Hale's Handful."

General Hale led the force personally in key missions, including an attack on Japanese phosphate works on Nauru Island and the first raid on Tarawa.

He won the Navy Cross for the Nauru and Tarawa missions and the Distinguished Service Medal for his performance in the Battle of Midway.

He was also awarded the Legion of Merit twice, once by the Army and once by the Navy; the Distinguished Flying Cross; the Bronze Star, and the Air Medal.

General Hale, a native of Pittsburg, Kan., joined the Philippines Constabulary in 1913 as a lieutenant after attending Kansas State College.

Four years later, he was commissioned in the United States Army as a third lieutenant, a grade that no longer exists, and was sent to China with the 15th Infantry. He served in France in the last eight months of World War I.

He transferred to the Air Corps in 1924 after completing pilot training at Kelly Field, San Antonio, Tex.

General Hale was sent to Honolulu a month after Pearl Harbor. He first commanded the VII Bomber Command, then the Seventh Air Force and, after 1944, all Army, Navy and Marine land-based aircraft in the Pacific Theater.

He remained on military duty for 39 years, retiring following extensive surgery for cancer.

He was a 32nd Degree Mason and a member of the Bohemian Club of San Francisco; Army-Navy Club, Washington, D.C., and Lotus Club, New York.

He is survived by his wife, the former Frances Whiting of Washington, D.C.; two daughters, Barbara Miller of Sunnyvale and Eveleth of Lancaster (Los Angeles county); four grandchildren, and a brother, Colonel Harry Hale.

Private funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at Bates, Evans & Fehrensens Funeral Home, Sonoma, by the Rev. Martin Knutsen of Trinity Episcopal Church.

Friends may send contributions to the American Cancer Society.

GENERAL HALE
39-year career

Gen. Willis H. Hale Retires Tomorrow

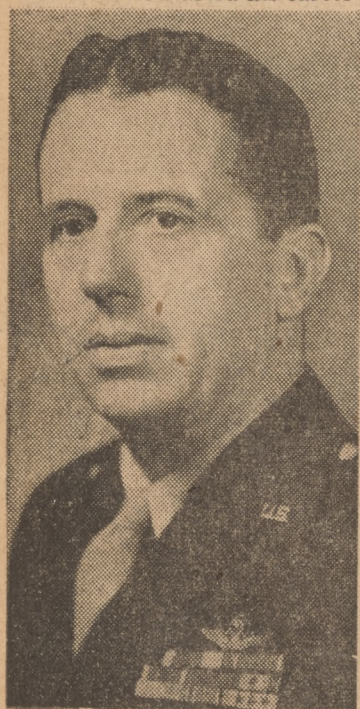

Ex-3d Lt. To Be Honored At Bay Base

The government didn't give 20 year old Willis H. Hale much when he started his military career in 1913.

But since then Hale has given a lot to the United States of America.

Tomorrow Willis H. Hale, a major general in the United States Air Force and one of the architects of America's victory in the Pacific in the war with Japan, will retire.

And as he reviews the troops at Hamilton Field, where the retirement ceremony will take place, General Hale may reflect that he started his career

MAJOR GENERAL
WILLIS H. HALE
Short-Changed 12 Cents

in an outfit that wasn't even part of the Army.

In 1913, when he was 20, Hale was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Philippine constabulary.

After this introduction to military life, Washington, D. C., made him a third lieutenant (a rank so low it doesn't even exist any more) in the regular army in 1918.

There was a big war going on in Europe at the time, so the Army sent Hale to China with the Fifteenth Infantry.

But the young Kansan managed to get to France anyway, just in time for the armistice.

Hale decided his future, if any, was not in the infantry. He got into the old Signal Corps and went to flying school.

This proved a wise decision on his part.

As a flier he was quite a success.

His record speaks for itself.

Sent to Hawaii

After a tour of peacetime duty at various air bases, and a course at the War College, spawning ground of the military elite, Hale was sent to Hawaii to command the VII Bomber command in 1942, shortly after Pearl Harbor.

In June, 1942, he was made commanding general of the Seventh Air Force in Hawaii, succeeding the late Major General Clarence L. Tinker, who disappeared during the battle of Midway.

While commanding the Seventh Air Force, Hale led his bombers in a strike on Tarawa and other nearby islands in the Central Pacific. He received the Navy Cross for his heroism during the raids.

His officers and men became known as "Hale's handful" to American forces throughout the Pacific.

The Japanese had other names for them.

In April, 1944, Admiral Chester A. Nimitz, who commanded allied forces in the Central Pacific, made Hale commander of all land-based Army, Navy and Marine aircraft in forward areas.

Later General Hale became commander of all Army aircraft in the Pacific.

Now He's Retiring

Since the war, General Hale has commanded Air Force air bases all over the United States, including at Hamilton Field, and in the Caribbean.

But now he is retiring to his Sonoma farm.

And the parade, review, and ceremonies at Hamilton Field at 2 p. m. Friday will mark the exit of another one of the pioneer airmen who made America supreme in the skies.

But General Hale probably won't be thinking of that.

He may note, however, that the government, which started him in the Philippine constabulary in 1913, and then "promoted" him to third lieutenant in the Army, has put a fitting climax to his career.

In between 1913 and 1952, they have awarded him every honor he could have hoped for.

He holds the Navy Cross, the Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion of Merit, both Navy and Army, the Bronze Star, the his expenses—at 6 cents a mile—from his Sonoma home to his retirement ceremonies at Hamilton Field tomorrow.

Distinguished Flying Cross, and the Air Medal, among many others.

Last Check $1.08

But the last check he received from the Air Force is for $1.08.

That was to cover his trip from Sonoma to Hamilton Field for the retirement ceremonies at 6 cents a mile.

Several Air Force clerks worked on quite a bit of paper before the Air Force could legally give the $1.08 check to General Hale.

Which is all fine, except that they figured the distance at 18 miles when actually, from his Sonoma home to the field, it is 20 miles.

And so tomorrow, the Air force will bid goodbye to one of the men who made it great—after short-changing him 12 cents.

BOYES HOT SPRINGS—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for John E. Cunningham, age 81 years, who died in a Santa Rosa hospital Tuesday after a long illness.

Born on the Isle of Man, Mr. Cunningham was reared in County Down, Ireland.

As a very young man he served with the British Navy and participated in the Boxer Rebellion in China.

He came to California in 1905 and while in San Francisco, he heard about the gold rush in Alaska which lured him to the territory for two years.

Upon return to San Francisco, he became employed by the Municipal Railway as a car repair man.

Then upon retirement he brought his family to Sonoma Valley, where he lived for more than 10 years.

Surviving are his wife, Christine Josephine Cunningham, Boyes Hot Springs; a daughter, Mrs. Winifred Helgersen, San Francisco, and a brother, Edward Cunningham, San Jose.

Services will be at 10 a. m. tomorrow in the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrensens, Sonoma.

Burial will be in St. Francis Solano Cemetery.

Recitation of the Rosary will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the funeral chapel.

Requiem mass will be offered at St. Francis Solano Church at a later date because of Holy Week services now being held.

Assembly Approves Milk Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Assembly Agriculture Committee has approved one of a group of bills tightening the California marketing act, but held over another at the request of the bill's author, Assemblyman John C. Williamson, D-Bakersfield. The committee Wednesday approved a bill that would make it a misdemeanor for a produce handler to receive or handle farm products grown and sold in violation of a state marketing order. Williamson asked for another week to rewrite a bill that would have made milk eligible for control under a marketing order. He said he would drop those provisions because another bill, also aimed at raising the price of manufacturing milk, seemed likely to pass. The other bill, by Sen. James A. Cobey, would put manufacturing milk under a state minimum pricing system, as is fluid milk. Williamson said he would add to his measure a noncontroversial provision that would permit marketing orders to promote their products with an exclusive brand name. The provision was included in another of the package of bills which was killed by the committee a week ago because of contr

El Verano Woman Slain by Husband

Mother of Seven Shot Five Times

By BONIFACE SALUDES
P.D. Staff Writer

EL VERANO — An unemployed El Verano carpenter shot and killed his estranged wife yesterday—climaxing a long history of domestic arguments—while their five-year-old son watched in horror.

The shooting occurred about 3 p. m. at the home of the victim, Mrs. Opal Beatrice Wagley, 41, of 112 Oak st.

She was shot five times by her wild-eyed husband, Ervin Fay Wagley, 41, with a nine-shot .22 revolver in the kitchen of their home.

Sheriff John A. Ellis said Mr. Wagley, who at first claimed he blackened out, confessed the slaying today and said he had been "thinking about it for some time."

"He said he's suffering from a malignancy," the sheriff said, "and doesn't see why she should go on living while he drops out of the picture."

Mr. Wagley was examined by a psychiatrist at the request of the district attorney's office earlier today.

Without warning, Mr. Wagley charged into the kitchen where Mrs. Wagley, mother of seven children, was polishing her shoes and opened fire.

Four slugs struck her in the back and one in the upper right arm.

An autopsy disclosed death resulted when one of the bullets nicked her heart, Coroner Andrew Johansen said.

Sheriff Ellis said the shooting occurred in the presence of the Wagley's five-year-old son, Ervin Wayne Wagley, and while Mrs. Wagley's daughter, Linda Coble, 13; her son Reuben Coble, 22, and his wife, Phyllis, were out in the yard.

Mr. Coble rushed inside when he heard the shots, wrested the pistol from Mr. Wagley and subdued him until sheriff's deputies arrived.

Linda, who stayed home from school yesterday with the measles, said Mr. Wagley arrived at the house shortly before noon looking for Mrs. Wagley.

Linda was home alone and told Mr. Wagley her mother and the young son were visiting friends.

"That's a damn good deal," Mr. Wagley said and left.

Shortly after 3 p. m., Mr. Wagley returned and parked his car in front of the house.

Mrs. Wagley had returned with the little boy—who they call by his middle name, Wayne. Mr. and Mrs. Coble had arrived earlier.

Mr. Coble was repairing a screen on a front window while his wife and Linda were talking in a car, parked in the driveway.

Greeted By Son

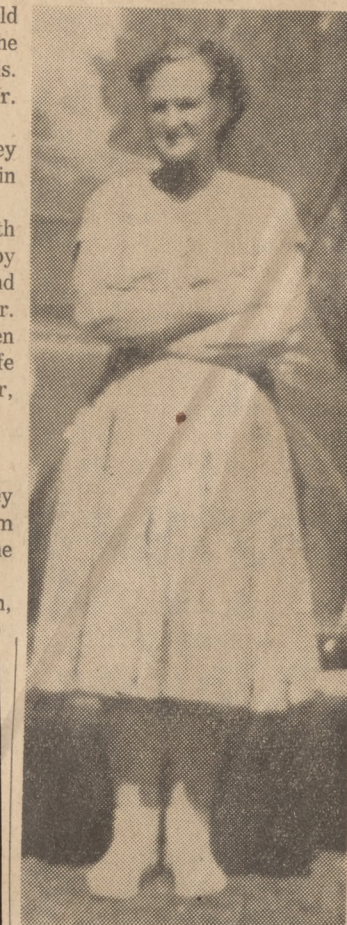

Linda said when Mr. Wagley drove up, Wayne ran to greet him and together they walked into the house.

Boatload of VIP's To Tour Bodega Harbor

A boatload of officials—federal, state and local—are invited on a waterborne tour of Bodega Harbor tomorrow.

Object: to take a close-up look at what's there now — including the federal jetties and channel — and to visualize some future developments including the Coast Guard station on Doran Park and the proposed PG&E plant on Bodega Head.

Included in the invitation list were California's two U.S. senators and the Redwood Empire's Congressman; the county's representatives in the State Senate and Assembly; top coast officials of the Army Corps of Engineers and Coast Guard; state harbors and parks officials; and county officials including the Board of Supervisors and Harbor Commission.

Immediate focal-point of the tour will be the dredge which moved into the harbor this week to undertake a two-phase program: re-dredging the federal channel and turning-basins to their original depth, and dredging a new channel and basin for the county adjacent to the Coast Guard site.

Other present and future developments, including a couple of private marinas on leased tide-lands in the harbor's north basin, also will be scrutinized.

The group will assemble at the

the morning boat tour—to be made on the Smith firm's big commercial fishing boat. A couple of smaller boats will be taken along for the benefit of photographers and others who want to get closer looks at some of the shoreline features.

Arrangements for the tour were made by V. M. (Bob) Moir, North Coast District manager of the California State Chamber of Commerce and a member of the County Harbor Commission.

He said that these officials have been invited:

U.S. Senators Thomas Kuchel and Clare Engle, Congressman Clem Miller, State Sen. Joseph A. Rattigan, Assemblyman William T. Bagley, Rear Adm. I. E. Eskridge, commandant of the 12th Coast Guard District, San Francisco; Col. John A. Morrison, district engineer, Army Corps of Engineers, San Francisco, and—also from the corps district office—John E. Deignan, chief of engineering, and Paul Vredenberg, chief of contracts and awards.

William F. Grader, Congressman Miller's field representative from Fort Bragg; Lachlan Richards, chief of the State Division of Small Craft Harbors; Gordon Kishbaugh, district superintendent for the state Division of Beaches and Parks.

All five members of the board of supervisors and all seven members of the harbor commission; County Administrator Neal D. Smith, Surveyor-Road Commissioner Marshall M. Wallace, Planning Director

RESERVED FOR Scott Thurber

Psssst! It's about time for a revival of that old song, Whispering.

Not necessarily on the radio or juke. Just pipe it into the sound system out there where Our Leaders meet. As background music — theme music — for our boldly sibilant Board of Supervisors.

Because some of the boys, these days, spend more meeting-time whispering than talking out loud.

UNDISPUTED champion of the board room whisperers is Supervisor Guy A. (for Aspirate) King—a man with worry etched on his face and a whisper grafted to his lips.

Mister King sits right next to our county administrator, Neal D. (for Don't-Say-it-Aloud) Smith, who is without doubt the foremost non-elected whisperer in the lot.

But they are not alone.

And sometimes there are so many confidential, off-mike conversations going on that you're sure a massive conspiracy is afoot.

And the poor guy who's making some kind of official presentation—at the microphone—finds with dismay he's talking only to himself.

THE LEAGUE of Seasoned Whisper-Tracers, a division of the Veteran County Government Observers Association, contends that sometimes these sotto-voce exchanges are portents of Something Big.

But the opposite is usually true.

Item:

At a recent meeting Mister King had a hurried exchange of whispers with Mister Smith, his team-mate.

Then—his face taut with worry—he leaned over and traded undertones with Supervisor Leigh S. (as in Ssssh!) Shoemaker, who is a title contender perhaps because of where he sits.

CALIFORNIA:

Weather will continue fair in much of Northern California through Friday. There will be night and morning coastal overcast, and clouds in the north Friday.

A high pressure system was centered about 800 miles southwest of San Francisco. A flat ridge across the Pacific Northwest connected it to another high center over north central Canada. There was a large storm area over the Pacific between Hawaii and Alaska and extending northward over Alaska and the Bearing Sea. At the present time fronts were moving around the periphery of this storm area and not penetrating the ridge across the northwestern states to an important extent. Weakening of the ridge was expected Friday resulting in increasing high cloudiness over Northern California.

Fair weather prevailed over the state during the past 24 hours except for afternoon cloudiness over the desert and low clouds on the coast. Temperatures climbed to 70 or above over all low altitude sections except a few beach communities Wednesday afternoon. Lows were generally in the 40s.

JACK PEARSON, past master of Santa Rosa Lodge 57, F&AM, will speak at the traditional Easter morning breakfast at the Scottish Rite Temple at 8 a.m. Sunday.

HE'S ACCUSED OF MURDERING WIFE
Bloodied Ervin Wagley After Shooting

HALF-BROTHERS REUBEN COBLE, ERVIN WAGLEY
Mr. Coble Wrested Gun from Step-Father

El Verano Woman, 41, Slain

"Ervin! Ervin!" Linda said. "Then we heard the shots."

Mr. Coble said he ran into the house as soon as he heard the shots.

"I grabbed him and we fought through the kitchen door and out in the porch. He said, 'I'll kill you, too!' I took the gun away from him and threw it out the door."

Meanwhile, Mrs. William Hall, who lives across the street at 111 Oak st., said she heard the screams and shots and telephoned Sonoma police who called the sheriff's office.

Mrs. Wagley, who is employed as a dishwasher at Sonoma Valley Hospital, had her back to the door polishing her white shoes when Mr. Wagley entered, Sheriff Ellis said.

"It looks as if she tried to run away from him," the sheriff said, "but she had nowhere to go. When we found her, she was lying face down with four shots in her back and one in her arm."

After Mr. Coble wrested the gun away and tossed it into the yard, an unidentified neighbor boy picked it up and ran down the street.

He either fired the remaining bullet or it went off accidentally.

The pistol chamber contained eight empty shells.

Frequent Arguments

Members of the family and neighbors said Mr. and Mrs. Wagley argued constantly in the five years of their marriage. The arguments and beatings Mr. Wagley dealt his wife became more intensified in the last few weeks.

They were married in September of 1955 and separated Dec. 1. On Dec. 6, Mrs. Wagley filed for divorce citing cruelty and she obtained her interlocutory decree Monday.

"We're not sure where Mr. Wagley was living during the separation," Sheriff Ellis said. "We think he was living in his car, but had been visiting his daughter in Richmond."

In documents in the divorce action in Superior Court, Mr. Wagley listed his address as 1270 Grove st.

Linda told The Press Democrat most of the arguments concerned the children.

"My mother didn't like the way he treated us," she said, "and they'd get into an argument over that. He beat her a lot, too."

She said since the separation, Mr. Wagley dropped by the house at least once a week on Tuesdays.

"He was here yesterday (Tuesday)," she said. "And they got into an argument then."

Mrs. Wagley also is survived by other daughters, Dorothy Coble, 12, who lives in the family home and was at school at the time of the shooting; Mrs. Bonny Sweden, Novato; Mrs. Helen Arnold, San Jose, and Mrs. Anna Lewis, San Geronimo; a brother, Elmer May, Ukiah, and five grandchildren.

She previously was married to the late Lloyd Coble.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday, at the Chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrensens. Burial will be in Valley Cemetery.

Eggs Ain't Expendable!

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A proposal to prevent eggs from being sold as loss leaders by groceries was approved Wednesday by the Assembly Livestock and Dairies Committee.

Proposed by Assemblyman Jack A. Beaver, (R-Redlands), it would prohibit a retailer from limiting the number or raising the price per dozen for greater amounts.

Kennedy Flies South For Easter

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — President Kennedy flew to Palm Beach today for a brief Easter vacation with his family.

The President, who has a jet plane standing by here in case the Laos crisis should require his presence in Washington, landed in the jet, an Air Force 707. Unless the press of government business requires a prior departure he plans to return to Washington sometime next Monday.

President Kennedy arranged a "24-hour watch" at the White House in his absence to rush matters to him requiring his immediate attention.

The President, whose wife, daughter and son already were in Palm Beach, was accompanied on the trip by Sen. J. William Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Mrs. Fulbright and Roving Ambassador Averell Harriman.

The Fulbrights were making the trip to spend the Easter holidays with friends in the area, while Harriman was going to his home in Hobe Sound.

Behan Battles Bottle In Fight for His Life

TORONTO (UPI) — Brendan Behan, 38, Ireland's colorful playwright, was fighting the most serious battle of his life against the bottle today in a Toronto hospital.

The writer's latest drinking spree landed him in a private hospital early this week, and re-

The FBI entered the investigation on the possibility the stones had been taken across a state line. Police searched the 16-story building floor by floor.

Amsel, a partner with two brothers in the Ambros Diamond Co., hoped to finish counting the diamonds left in the safe today to determine exactly which ones are gone.

In Monday's theft, an unmasked gunman stole about $47,000 in gems from jewel dealer Emanuel Hirschberg just as Hirschberg was

Legislature Drops Birch Society Probe

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— Assembly attacks on the ultra-conservative John Birch Society evaporated today.

The lower chamber Rules Committee had set the stage for a full dress hearing on two resolutions attacking the right wing group, and had even investigated the possibility of moving its bi-weekly session to a larger committee room.

Then, suddenly...

Committee Chairman Augustus F. Hawkins, D-Los Angeles, told a reporter that he was going to suggest the two resolutions be withdrawn.

"They haven't got the votes to get the resolutions out of committee," Hawkins said.

Hearings Postponed

Hawkins spoke to both authors — Assemblymen Gordon I. Winton, D-Merced, and John A. O'Connell, D-San Francisco—and then announced the committee hearing was postponed indefinitely.

O'Connell's measure introduced last Wednesday with bipartisan coauthors, would put the lower chamber on record as disapprov-

Tonsils Snipped In Mass Removal

GARDENA (UPI)—It was tonsil-snipping time yesterday for the Seto children — all nine of them.

The children aged 3 to 14 were herded to Community Hospital and had their tonsils removed en masse.

Assembly Approves Milk Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Assembly Agriculture Committee has approved one of a group of bills tightening the California marketing act, but held over another at the request of the bill's author, Assemblyman John C. Williamson, D-Bakersfield.

The committee Wednesday approved a bill that would make it a misdemeanor for a produce handler to receive or handle farm products grown and sold in violation of a state marketing order.

Williamson asked for another week to rewrite a bill that would have made milk eligible for control under a marketing order.

He said he would drop those provisions because another bill, also aimed at raising the price of manufacturing milk, seemed likely to pass. The other bill, by Sen. James A. Cobey, would put manufacturing milk under a state minimum pricing system, as is fluid milk.

Williamson said he would add to his measure a noncontroversial provision that would permit marketing orders to promote their products with an exclusive brand name.

The provision was included in another of the package of bills which was killed by the committee a week ago because of contro-

Edward Rich, a veteran member of the Sonoma County Sheriff's Department, and a resident of El Verano for many years, died at his home Sunday at the age of 51.

Mr. Rich had suffered a near-fatal heart attack a year ago, but had recovered and was back working with the department. He worked Sunday and after dinner, complained of feeling ill to his wife, Gladys.

Shortly after retiring to his bed he apparently suffered another heart attack, and succumbed before a doctor could arrive.

Mr. Rich was born in San Jacinto, and moved to Sonoma County shortly after his retirement from the Navy as a chief petty officer, in aviation mechanics, after serving from 1923 to 1948.

He worked with the San Diego Coast Patrol from 1948 until 1952, when he moved here and was hired by the late sheriff, Harry Patteson.

In 1957 he resigned from the department, but was re-hired by Sheriff John Ellis in March, 1959, and was promoted to sergeant in November of the same year.

Mr. Rich served for about two years prior to 1957 on the patrol in Sonoma Valley with Sgt. Ted Ries, and his most recent assignment had been in Santa Rosa.

He is survived by his wife, Gladys Rich, El Verano, his mother, Mrs. Fannie E. Rich of Hemet, a sister, Nellie L. Odegaard of Santa Clara and his brothers, Robert Snodgrass, Herbert Snodgrass, both of Hemet,

Ed Rich

Harold Rich of Burbank, and William, George and Richard Rich, all of Riverside.

Funeral services will be held at 11:30 a. m. today, (Thursday), in the Hartford's Funeral Chapel, Hemet, under the auspices of the F. & A. M. Lodge.

Burial will be in Hemet Valley Cemetery. Local arrangements were by Bates, Evans & Fehrensen.

Under questioning he admitted breaking into Food City Thursday night and stealing a transistor radio, a meat hook, and a bottle of vodka. Police Chief Frank Kelly said Noone told him he had committed the burglary because he "had to have a drink."
Chief Kelly said he also felt that Noone was involved in a burglary which took place Sunday at Gibby's Delicatessen. Noone has said he did not commit this burglary, however, in which a clock was stolen.
Noone had the transistor radio with him when he was arrested. The empty vodka bottle was found in a suitcase belonging to him.
Noone broke a window to gain entrance at Food City. The burglary at Gibby's also occurred in this manner.

Last Curtain for
Mrs. Norene,
Showbiz Star

The curtain came down for the last time last week for Viola, Girl of the Golden West. Mrs. Helen Norene, who did dance and song behind the footlights under that name when vaudeville flourished many years ago, died in Sonoma Friday. Death came at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Lantz, 20545 Fifth St. East. She was 73.

In the early years of this century, Mrs. Norene was an actress with the Sid Grauman stock company. Grauman was the celebrated showman who built Hollywood's Chinese Theater.

Mrs. Norene also toured in vaudeville as a singer and dancer. Audiences in the U. S. and Canada were charmed by the offerings of the petite performer.

Later Mrs. Norene was a member for some years of the entertainment unit of the Tamalpais Chapter of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary in San Rafael.

Mrs. Norene had lived in Sonoma Valley for 21 years. Her husband, Ernest, died five years ago. Always active with the VFW, she made many friends in recent years while selling poppies for the veterans.

Besides her daughters, she is survived by her grandchildren, Mary Bettiga, Edwina A. Herwat, and Barbara J. Herwat, Sonoma; her brothers, Max Schatz, Lomita; and William Schatz, Long Beach; and a great-granddaughter, Anna Marie Bettiga.

She was a native of Berlin, Germany. The Bear Flag Post of the VFW conducted a service for Mrs. Norene Sunday. A requiem mass was held for her Monday at St. Francis Solano Church. Burial was in St. Francis Solano Cemetery.

Funeral arrangements were made by Bates, Evans & Fehrensen.

Dear Mr. Ferrison:

Our client, Mrs. Habekoss, has requested from your organization receipts for exhumation and death certificate, plus her receipt for a down payment on the plot. To date, she has not received them, and is quite concerned over the lack of the receipt and over the failure of your organization to send the death certificate as requested and paid for.

Would you kindly see that these documents are forwarded to her without any further delay, as she is in need of them.

Your immediate attention is requested.

Very truly yours,

Young Sonoma father of five is killed

Robert Lewis Pederson, 29, of 362 West MacArthur st., Sonoma, was killed following an accident on U. S. Highway 40 near Truckee Thursday, and two passengers in his car received major injuries.

According to the report, Pederson apparently lost control of the car which tore out about 55 feet of guard rail before coming to rest on its side on the highway.

He jumped out of the smashed auto and was struck by another car following, driven by

The two passengers, Raymond Barrell, 39, of Sonoma, and Henry C. Guidotti, 28, of Napa, were released this week from a Truckee hospital following treatment. All of the men are with the California Division of Forestry and had been on a hunting trip when the accident occurred.

Barrell, who is with the Napa station, was the driver of a tanker which overturned after being hit by a car on July 20, in Napa, and was on leave recovering from injuries received in that crash when Thursday's accident occurred.

Guidotti is stationed at St. Helena, and Pederson was with the CDF at Fortuna.

Mr. Pederson was a native of St. Paul, Minn., and had lived in California for the past 19 years, the last two years in Sonoma Valley.

He had served with the U. S. Navy during World War II.

Surviving are his wife, Jean Pederson, and his children, Bruce, Robert, John, Gerald and Debra Pederson, all of Sonoma; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewey Pederson; his brother, Curtis Allan Pederson; and his sisters, Carol and Katherine Pederson, all of Laytonville.

Funeral services were held Monday at the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrensens, Sonoma, with the Rev. C. George Goehring of Faith Lutheran Church officiating.

Burial was in Valley Cemetery.

C. A. 'Pop' Wilson

Founder of credit union

C. A. Wilson mourned

Charles Anderson Wilson, 79, of 102 Hill Road, Glen Ellen, died Sunday, August 20, at Sonoma Valley Hospital.

A native of Ohio, Mr. Wilson had lived in the valley since 1921, when he went to work as a carpenter at Sonoma State Hospital, advancing to chief of the maintenance department, and retiring in 1951 after 30 years with the facility.

Affectionately known as 'Pop' Wilson by everyone who knew and loved him, he was one of the founders of the California State Employees Credit Union No. 14 at Eldridge, and remained active as secretary-treasurer of the organization even after his retirement.

The Credit Union grew under his guidance to become the largest in Sonoma County, and his combination of a business brain with a warm heart led the members of the Union to pay special honor to him on Oct. 15, 1959, International Credit Union Day.

A long-time colleague once said that, "How many people he has helped through some rough times will never be known."

"rop" was born in Ohio Nov. 28, 1881, and came to California when he was 19. He worked around the San Francisco area until coming to Eldridge in 1921.

In May, 1936, he and three fellow workers formed the credit union with a total capital of $25, and nursed it along until it has assets of more than $750,000.

Over the years he also found time to give service to the community, serving as trustee of Dunbar Union School from 1923 and for many years until he went on the board of trustees of Sonoma Valley Union High School.

"Pop" was also the first elected trustee of the old Sonoma Community Hospital, serving on the hospital board for several terms.

He was a member of Knights of Pythias, Independent Order of Foresters, California Mutual Aid Association, Past Chancellor-Commander of California Lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, and a member of the Retired Employees Association.

He is survived by his wife, Mabel A. Wilson, to whom he was married for 56 years. The couple had lived in their Hill Road home for 40 years.

Mr. Wilson is also survived by his brother, Harry Wilson of Ohio, several nieces and nephews, and was the father of the late Orval Wilson.

Funeral services were held yesterday in the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrensens, Sonoma with the Rev. Moffat Dennis, chaplain at Sonoma State Hospital, officiating.

SONOMA — An autopsy was scheduled today to determine the caused a death of a four-month-old Sonoma boy who died last night in the Sonoma Valley Hospital after earlier responding to resuscitation efforts.

Michael London, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, 562 Third st. east, died more than a hour after being found limp and blue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre H. Wirtz, 263 Wilking way, according to Sonoma County coroner Andrew C. Johansen.

The Londons, who are not related to the late Glen Ellen author, were visiting the Wirtz's.

Mrs. Wirtz said, her 13-year-old son found the child limp and blue when he went to the boy's bassinets.

A neighbor reportedly administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation before the Sonoma Fire Department, called at 8:05 o'clock, arrived with a resuscitator.

The child was taken to the hospital by an ambulance and died at 9:30. The child was kept alive about an hour at the Wirtz home, the coroner said.

The Bates, Evans & Fehrens funeral home is in charge of services.

Rev. Huskins is home from hospital

The Rev. William L. Huskins returned home last week from Kaiser Hospital in Vallejo where he had been confined for treatment of a leg infection since Aug. 9. It was thought he would be in the hospital for two weeks but treatment progressed more rapidly than expected and he was able to be home in time to attend dedication services Sunday of the new building of St. Andrew United Presbyterian Parish. SONOMA — An autopsy was scheduled today to determine the cause of a death of a four-month-old Sonoma boy who died last night in the Sonoma Valley Hospital after earlier responding to resuscitation efforts.

Michael London, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, 562 Third St. east, died more than a hour after being found limp and blue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre H. Wirtz, 263 Wilking way, according to Sonoma County coroner Andrew C. Johansen.

The Londons, who are not related to the late Glen Ellen author, were visiting the Wirtz's.

Mrs. Wirtz said, her 13-year-old son found the child limp and blue when he went to the boy's bassinet.

A neighbor reportedly administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation before the Sonoma Fire Department, called at 8:05 o'clock, arrived with a resuscitator.

The child was taken to the hospital by an ambulance and died at 9:30. The child was kept alive about an hour at the Wirtz home, the coroner said.

The Bates, Evans & Fehrens funeral home is in charge of services.

Death in the afternoon

Mrs. H. G. Makelim, prominent Kenwood resident, met death Tuesday in new Cadillac sedan above which crashed into Highway 12 bridge abutment at left. The tragic crash occurred at 4:10 Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Makelim, widely known in the valley, was dead on arrival at Sonoma Valley Hospital.

Mrs. Makelim dies in crash

Mrs. Lenore Amilda Makelim, 71, of Kenwood, was dead on arrival at Sonoma Valley Hospital Tuesday following an automobile crash on Highway 12 one-half mile north of Warfield Station.

According to the California Highway Patrol, there was no immediate determination of the cause of the accident which happened at 4:10 p. m., and an investigation is under way.

Apparently, Mrs. Makelim's car was traveling north at a moderate rate of speed when it suddenly speeded up and crossed the highway, striking headon into a bridge abutment, according to a witness to the accident.

This has lead to the belief that Mrs. Makelim may have collapsed at the wheel.

She was taken to Sonoma Valley Hospital by Norrbom's Ambulance Service where she was pronounced dead by a physician. An autopsy is being conducted to determine the cause of death.

Mrs. Makelim was the wife of Howard Grant Makelim, a retired automotive and electrical apparatus businessman from San Francisco, and the couple had lived in the valley for more than 20 years.

Their lovely home on Warm Springs rd. near Rohrer ave. has long been recognized for its hospitality. There, for many years, Mr. and Mrs. Makelim featured lighted lifelike manger scenes at Christmastime, with live burros and sheep in the setting.

The Makelims are also well known for the famed Bloodhounds they used to raise at their Kenwood showplace, many of their dogs gaining recognition for their tracking in various parts of the world.

She was an active member of the Catholic Social Service Auxiliary in the valley.

Besides her husband Mrs. Makelim is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Ann Fridiger, and seven grandchildren, Marsha, Michael, Mary, Paula, Lisa, Ellen and Danny Fridiger, all of San Anselmo; a sister, Mrs. Irene Brennan of Sonoma, and a brother, Frank Silva of Oakley.

Funeral services are pending at Bates, Evans & Fehrensens, Sonoma.

Prominent Kenwood Woman Dies in Crash

KENWOOD — A socially prominent Kenwood woman was pronounced dead on arrival at Sonoma Valley Hospital yesterday after being pinned in her wrecked car for about 40 minutes.

Mrs. Lenore A. Makelin, 71, was pronounced dead after a 4:10 p.m. accident when her car crashed headon into the southeast abutment of the Moon Creek Bridge on Highway 12, about a half mile north of Arnold dr.

Mrs. Makelin's death brought the Sonoma County traffic fatality count to 40 this year, 10 above last year's toll for the same period.

Andrew Johansen, county coroner, said a driver following the Makelin car noted the car swerving two or three times before the crash. Mr. Johansen said this indicated Mrs. Makelin may have suffered a heart attack or dizzy spell. An autopsy was scheduled today to determine the direct cause of death.

The California Highway Patrol reported Mrs. Makelin did not apply her brakes, but drove straight into the abutment. Rescue workers tried for about 40 minutes before being able to extricate Mrs. Makelin from the wreckage.

She was the wife of Howard G. Makelin, retired San Francisco electrical businessman and former breeder of purebred Bloodhounds.

The Makelin's stone house is a landmark in Kenwood on Mound ave. They have lived in the valley for 20 years. Mrs. Makelin was born in Oakley.

Mrs. Makelin is survived by her husband; her sister, Mrs. Frank Brennan, Sonoma, and her daughter, Mrs. Ann Fridegr, Greenbrae.

Funeral arrangements are being made by Bates, Evans & Fehrens Funeral Directors in Sonoma.

Charge He stressed repeatedly that the forthcoming election on the bond issue had nothing to do with the Sonoma Aqueduct project, but was a local distribution system issue. He pointed out that the Coyote water is already contracted for and will come regardless of the outcome of the election. However, he stressed that if the bond issue failed, the district would find itself in the position of having water with no way to get it to the people.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

$5,000 Bequest

FETTERS HOT SPRINGS—Sonoma Valley Union High School was given a check for $5,000 last night by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dresel as a bequest of the will of Mrs. Eva Carola Gundlach Weed, who died last October.

The check was presented by Mr. Dresel, nephew of Mrs. Weed, through Dr. Paul Harrison, vice-president of the Sonoma Valley Unified School board.

The gift was made in the name of Benjamin Weed, the first principal of the high school and husband of the donor.

The board, in accepting the check, moved to name the high school library in honor of Mr. Weed, and to have a plaque made and affixed to the library wall with suitable notation.

The board also agreed to invest $3,000 of the bequest, the annual income from which to pay for library books. With the balance of $2,000 it was agreed that books would be purchased for this school year.

John Glaese, superintendent, announced that with the final analysis of the budget previously adopted, a gross tax drop of 25 cents had resulted because of the increased $4 million in assessed property valuation in the area.

Due to the recent bonds floated by the district, the net tax drop is 14 cents, Mr. Glaese said.

1—Approved calling for bids on the high school building additions, to be opened Sept. 25 in administration offices.

2—Renewed transportation contracts with L. E. Miske, Sonoma, and with Skaggs Island.

3—Decided to rent two rooms at the Congregational Church for a special sixth grade class from Sassarini School. Cost $100 per month, plus utilities and custodial services.

4—Approved Interdistrict agreement for Donald Petty and for the Joseph C. Richards Jr. children.

5—Agreed upon Sonoma County Schools Trustees Association membership.

6—Accepted resignation of James Healey, teacher; and hired Ronald Bucknam as a probationary teacher at Sassarini school.

7—Hired 12 substitute teachers for elementary schools and three substitutes for the high school.

8—Hired seven lay readers for the 1962-63 school year.

9—Employed Ralph Huber as substitute maintenance man.

10—Approved the annual report as submitted by the superintendent.

Harrison Snider

Harrison M. Snider, 87, died yesterday in his Santa Rosa home on Greenfield rd., after a long illness.

Mr. Snider was a native of Cleveland, Ohio. He had lived in California 44 years and in Sonoma County four years.

He was a member of an old family in Pennsylvania, being a direct descendant through his mother, of Hans Herr, founder of Lancaster, Pa.

Mr. Snider was a member of Troop A, Ohio Cavalry, known as the Blackhorse Troop which escorted President McKinley in his inaugural parade.

Mr. Snider was the founder of the Community Chest in Pasadena; and for years he was the treasurer of the San Gabriel Boy Scout Council in southern California.

He also was treasurer of the Tuberculosis Association in Pasadena; and a member of the Valley Hunt Club in that city.

As secretary to his father, Martin Snider, who owned the Interstate Cooperage Co., Cleveland, Ohio, he supervised the manufacture of barrels in which John D. Rockefeller transported oil in the early days.

He also purchased lumber for the giant barrel-making company.

Mr. Snider is survived by his daughter, Harriet Snider Greeff, Santa Rosa; granddaughter, Harriet B. Greeff, San Francisco; sister, Mrs. Alfred H. Brewster, Cleveland, Ohio; brother, Howard Snider, New Rochelle, N.Y.; and niece, Florence Brewster, Cleveland, Ohio.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in Trinity Episcopal Church, Second st. and East Napa st., Sonoma, with the Rev. Martin Knutsen officiating.

Services are under the direction of Bates, Evans & Fehrensens, Sonoma.

Interment will be in Mountain View Cemetery, Pasadena.

Contributions to the building fund of Trinity Episcopal Church, Sonoma, are preferred.

H. M. Snider services held at Trinity Church

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon from Trinity Episcopal Church, Sonoma, for Harrison M. Snider, 87, who died on Monday at his home in Holland Heights, Santa Rosa.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he had been a resident of Sonoma County for the past four years, coming here from Pasadena.

He is survived by his daughter, Harriet Snider Greeff, and his son-in-law, Bernard Greeff of 7530 Sonoma Highway; a granddaughter, Harriet B. Greeff, San Francisco; a sister, Mrs. Alfred H. Brewster, Cleveland, Ohio; a brother, Howard Snider, New Rochelle, N. Y., and a niece, Florence Brewster, Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Snider was a direct descendant of Hans Herr, founder of Lancaster, Penn., and was a member of Troop A, Ohio Cavalry, which escorted President McKinley for his inaugural parade.

The Rev. Martin Knutsen officiated at yesterday's services. Bates, Evans and Fehrensens were the funeral directors in charge of the services. Interment was private.

Harrison Snider

Harrison M. Snider, 87, died yesterday in his Santa Rosa home on Greenfield rd., after a long illness.

Mr. Snider was a native of Cleveland, Ohio. He had lived in California 44 years and in Sonoma County four years.

He was a member of an old family in Pennsylvania, being a direct descendant through his mother, of Hans Herr, founder of Lancaster, Pa.

Mr. Snider was a member of Troop A, Ohio Cavalry, known as the Blackhorse Troop which escorted President McKinley in his inaugural parade.

Mr. Snider was the founder of the Community Chest in Pasadena; and for years he was the treasurer of the San Gabriel Boy Scout Council in southern California.

He also was treasurer of the Tuberculosis Association in Pasadena; and a member of the Valley Hunt Club in that city.

As secretary to his father, Martin Snider, who owned the Interstate Cooperage Co., Cleveland, Ohio, he supervised the manufacture of barrels in which John D. Rockefeller transported oil in the early days.

He also purchased lumber for the giant barrel-making company.

Mr. Snider is survived by his daughter, Harriet Snider Greeff, Santa Rosa; granddaughter, Harriet B. Greeff, San Francisco; sister, Mrs. Alfred H. Brewster, Cleveland, Ohio; brother, Howard Snider, New Rochelle, N.Y.; and niece, Florence Brewster, Cleveland, Ohio.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in Trinity Episcopal Church, Second st. and East Napa st., Sonoma, with the Rev. Martin Knutsen officiating.

Services are under the direction of Bates, Evans & Fehrensens, Sonoma.

Inurnment will be in Mountain View Cemetery, Pasadena.

Contributions to the building fund of Trinity Episcopal Church, Sonoma, are preferred.

She leaves to mourn her, her husband, prominent Sonoma building contractor; and his sons, C. Allan Bean, of Sonoma, the Rev. Donald Bean, Akron, Colo.; Talbert W. CALIFORNIA Highway Commissioners are shown during Tuesday's freeway hearing at the Veterans' Memorial Building. Presiding in center is Chairman R. D. Bradford. Left is James A. Guthrie, right is John Erreca. Other commissioners who turned up later were Arthur T. Luddy and Roger S. Woolley. Hearing lasted for three hours and was second held here. State Highway engineers still favor a center-of-the-valley route for the freeway, but most valley citizens who spoke at the hearing said they were against it. A final decision on the freeway is still in abeyance.

Old timer,
Mrs. Studley,
Dead at 70

Funeral services were held on Saturday, Jan. 6, for Mrs. Minnie C. Studley, 70, who passed away Thursday at Sonoma Valley Community Hospital, after a long illness.

Mrs. Studley, a long-time Sonoma resident was born in South Dakota, and came to the valley with her parents, the late Christian and Christina Smith in 1905.

In 1920 she and Chester F. Studley were married, and they lived for 19 years on their ranch at MacArthur and 5th st. east. After this they moved to Eureka, where they resided for 18 years prior to returning to the valley in 1957.

Mrs. Studley and her husband, who were both interested in the historical significance of the valley, bought and remodeled a home near the mission, at 327 First st. east, in early mission style.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Studley is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Jane Grecian; son-in-law, William R. Grecian; sisters, Anna J. S. Anderson and E. Christine Smith; brothers, Carl J. Smith, Dewey J. Smith, and Fred C. Smith, all of Sonoma; niece, Doris Anderson; and nephews, Sgt. Robt. Smith, U.S. Army Fort Lewis, Washington, and Paul R. Smith, Sonoma.

George Scrimger

SONOMA—Services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday for George H. Scrimger, lifelong professional musician, who died Monday in a Novato hospital after a long illness.

Born in Reno, Nev., 49 years ago, Mr. Scrimger lived in Sonoma Valley seven years, where he taught music in Sonoma Valley High School. He lived in California 42 years.

During the last two years he had resided in Novato.

As an active musician, he was a member of various musicians union locals, including Local 6, San Francisco.

He was an orchestral pianist and organist in the entertainment field as well as a church musician, having served churches as organist and choir director in Sacramento, Vallejo, the Bay Area, Marin and Sonoma counties.

He maintained a private studio for piano in Vallejo for some years and was also bassoonist for the Vallejo Symphony.

For a number of years he was in the cost account department at Mare Island. He was a veteran of World War II.

He received his masters degree from San Francisco State. Only last year he returned to San Francisco State and earned his credential in counseling and guidance, however, his recent illness prevented his entering this field.

He was a graduate of the Sacramento public schools, and studied music with various prominent private teachers.

In Sonoma Mr. Scrimger was organist-director of the Methodist Church and also organist for the First Congregational Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ann Ruggles Scrimger, his sons, James Edward Scrimger, 18, and Gordon W. Scrimger, 15, all of Novato; his daughters, Mrs. Albert Mazza, Sonoma, and Mrs. Edwinna Ann Johnson, Novato; and his sister, Mrs. Helen Akers, Sacramento.

He also leaves two grandchildren.

Services will be held in the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrensen.

Burial will be in Valley Cemetery.

Contributions to the cancer fund are preferred.

Rites for Col. Stead, veteran pilot

Funeral services were held here yesterday for retired Air Force Colonel Charles Baldwin Stead, 67, a pilot in both World Wars and a flier with more than 10,000 hours in the air. Col. Stead died Friday at his home, 3621 Wood Valley rd. He had been under treatment at Letterman General Hospital for three years.

Col. Stead joined the Army in 1917, became an officer, and received pilot training in France and Italy. In 1918 he was forced down in the English Channel and was rescued by an Australian warship.

In the period between the two World Wars, Col. Stead was a pilot for 10 years with United Air Lines.

Recalled to active duty in 1940, Col. Stead was a base commander in Nebraska and Florida before he went overseas as a member of a special Air Inspector's team which operated in the Philippines and Australia. During this tour of duty he received a disabling injury.

Col. Stead retired from the Air Force Reserve in 1955. From 1950 to 1959 he was employed as a civil engineer by the Western Air Force Command, Hamilton Air Force Base. He received a commendation certificate upon his retirement.

Col. Stead was born in Illinois. He attended Beloit College and the University of Illinois. He had lived in Sonoma for seven years. He was a member of the Masons, the American Legion and the Air Force Association.

He is survived by his daughter, Patricia Anne Stead, Seattle, Wash.; two sisters, Mrs. C. W. Hendrickson, Seattle, and Mrs. Gwendolyn Eldred, Atherton, and a brother George A. Stead, Oakland. He also leaves several nieces and nephews.

Services were held at the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrensens. Burial was in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Card of thanks
RALPH (BUD) DOWNEY
We want to thank the many friends who, by their cards of sympathy, their floral tributes, acts of kindness and prayers helped us during our recent bereavement. The contributions to the Sonoma Valley Athletic Club and the National Foundation are a memorial in our hearts to the courage and industry and interest of Bud Downey.
Our special thanks to the Reverend Wayne Williams for his spiritual help, to the doctors and nurses who have, over the many years, given of their best medical advice, and to Bates, Evans & Fehrensen for the beautiful funeral services.

'Bud' Downey mourned

Ralph (Bud) Downey, a little man with a big heart and love of athletics, was laid to rest Saturday in Mountain Cemetery overlooking the Arnold Field he knew so well.

The 48-year-old president of the Sonoma Valley Athletic Club died on Wednesday, March 28 at a Santa Rosa Hospital after waging a long fight against a severe illness.

Although a polio attack at an early age rendered his legs virtually useless, Mr. Downey ably got around on crutches and drove an automobile all of his adult years.

A sports fan since youth, he was a familiar figure at local baseball games and other athletic events and was a favorite here as a scorekeeper and announcer for baseball contests.

A charter member of the Sonoma Valley Athletic Club, he had served as its secretary since its inception and was elected President for the current year. Mr. Downey had also served a term as president of the Babe Ruth League and for four years had been manager of the Sonoma Plumbing and Heating softball team. He was very active in the campaign to raise funds for Arnold Field.

In May of last year Mr. Downey suffered a cerebral hemorrhage and lay for some eight months in the hospital. Two months ago he was able to return home and eagerly joined in Athletic Club activities, being honored with the presidency. But he was stricken ill again two weeks ago and taken to the hospital where death came Mar. 28.

Prior to his illness, he had been employed with the Robert A. Miller insurance firm here. Born in Oregon, he had lived in Sonoma for 45 years. His home was at 583 Curtin Lane.

He is survived by his brothers, Harvey, Alton and Lester Downey, all of Sonoma; his sisters, Mrs. Jennie Dahlin, San Francisco; Cleve Downey, San Rafael; and Mrs. Leta Hooper, Herlong. He also leaves many nieces and nephews.

The Rev. Wayne Williams officiated at the services held at the chapel of Bates, Evans and Fehrensen.

Mr. Tuohey served with the United States Armed Forces during World War I and returned to the postal department following the war.

He is survived by his wife, Anna M. Tuohey of 18475 Railroad ave., and by his two sons, James G. Tuohey of Sonoma, an employee of Sonoma State Hospital and part-time custodian at Sonoma Methodist Church, and Robert L. Tuohey, an instructor in rescue work with the San Francisco Fire Department.

He is also survived by four grandchildren.

EDITORIALS

She will be missed, and never forgotten

My Aunt Celie—Mrs. Celeste G. Murphy—departed this earth last Thursday afternoon.

She died at two o'clock, just as her devoted husband, Walter L. Murphy, and I, her nephew, drove up in front of the hospital for our daily visit.

I choose to eulogize her here, in the editorial columns, because as editor of the Index-Tribune for 35 years, she made her presence felt here.

Even as a girl, newly-graduated from the University of California she wrote editorials for her father, Harry Granice, my grandfather, who was editor and publisher of this paper from 1884 to 1915. And when she heard Grandpa Granice taking credit for her editorials, Aunt Celie took solace in the knowledge that her writing had been effective.

Grandpa indicated what confidence he had in his daughter when he bought the weekly San Rafael Independent in 1901 and sent the 21-year-old Celeste down to run it. Even with a lone printer, whose sober days were rare, the girl editor (perhaps California's first) met her weekly deadline and put out a good newspaper. A natural fighter, when she decided the opposition paper was "scooping" her too often, she transformed the weekly into a daily—and it was daily when Grandpa Granice finally sold it. Today, the San Rafael Independent is one of Northern California's outstanding daily newspapers.

Married here in 1905, she and Mr. Murphy, a builder, moved to San Francisco after the earthquake of 1906 where he helped in the rebuilding of the great city.

When Grandpa died in 1915, the Murphys returned to Sonoma and purchased the Index-Tribune from his estate.

Sad to relate, under non-family management for a brief time, the Index, founded in 1879, had gone downhill, and there were two other newspapers competing for readers, advertisers and job printing.

Aunt Celie and Uncle Walter lived then in an apartment here which happened to be above the printing plant of one of the opposition newspapers. Aunt Celie told me how blue she used to feel when coming home after a hard day of seeking news, advertising and printing, to hear the competition's presses roaring far into the night.

But she recalled what an old friend had told her, "Don't you worry, Celeste. The Index-Tribune has roots in the community like a great oak. You'll succeed." And she and Uncle Walter did. They were a good team; she as the editor and he as the publisher and mechanical superintendent.

Her outstanding editorials and writing ability were quickly recognized in the community and outside it, and the Index-Tribune gained recognition and prospered.

Aunt Celie loved California history and fought for the preservation of historic landmarks in her community and State—yet she welcomed progress and supported whatever she believed would better her Valley of the Moon and its people.

The highway of Sonoma Valley's progress is strengthened with foundations this dedicated and brilliant little lady helped to put into place with her deft pen.

The files of the Index-Tribune are a veritable history book covering her accomplishments and dedication to her beloved community. As if this were not enough, she authored "The People of the Pueblo" in 1937—the first comprehensive history book on Sonoma.

She was the author of the Mission Pageant for the Valley of the Moon Vintage Festival, of which she was a founder. And even though seriously ill last September, the little lady could be seen on her balcony at the Old Barracks, watching "her" production from a wheelchair.

My mother was Mrs. Murphy's sister, and when she died at 42, Aunt Celie became my second mother. It gladdened her heart that I eventually acquired her love for journalism, and after serving a three-year apprenticeship under her and Uncle Walter, I was given the opportunity of purchasing the Index-Tribune in 1949, when this grand old couple retired.

Even in retirement, Aunt Celie helped to guide the paper's growth, and her proudest moments were those when our weekly newspaper won state or national awards—and my proudest moments were when I could place those awards in her hands.

Before she was taken ill in January of 1961, she still kept a "hand in" at the Index-Tribune—calling or bringing in news items, writing guest editorials—or letting me know when she thought I had written a particularly good story, a poor story, missed an important event or if she disagreed with my editorial stand.

While she was still able to read, a "hot off the press" copy of the Index-Tribune was delivered regularly to her hospital bed on Wednesday nights, to her great pleasure.

Now she is gone, although we still are not used to the idea.

Aunt Celie and Uncle Walter, in their graciousness, somehow were the picture of Sonoma. Now one half of that picture is dimmed, and the devoted husband remains to cherish memories of this grand little lady—along with her beloved sister, nephews, other family members and countless friends.

But Aunt Celie left many of her great gifts in her beloved Sonoma. And Sonoma is a better place because of her and what she did here.

She will be missed, and never forgotten. —RML

The bonds to be sold are part

In addition to purchase of the

Besides awarding the bond who will be manager of the dis-

Coffey was hired at a $150 a will serve as district auditor and will be paid the prevailing ary will be $800 a month.

Hill has a 30-year background said. He was formerly manager of California Water Service in Petaluma.

The board heard complaints

dents of Sobre Vista, George directors explained they can do nothing about this situation until the district takes over SWIC, which has a contract with the Sobre Vista Water Co.

The directors did, however,
ask their attorney to study the contract SWIC has with Sobre Vista and the matter will be discussed at a future meeting.

Celeste Murphy Succumbs

SONOMA — Celeste G. Murphy, well-known historical writer, retired editor and former co-publisher of the Sonoma Index-Tribune, died yesterday at a Sonoma hospital after a long illness.

She was 79.

Her death ended a long and colorful career as a newspaper-woman, author and student of California and Sonoma history.

She was the author of People of the Pueblo, and the Vintage Festival Pageant, performed each year at the Sonoma celebration as well as pamphlets and articles of historical matters.

She was a graduate of the University of California (Class of 1901) a member of the California Alumni Association and a charter member of the Sonoma Valley Women's Club.

She was one of the founders of the present Valley of the Moon Vintage Festival, a member of the Sonoma Valley and California historical societies, League of California Penwomen and the California Press Association.

Mrs. Murphy, before her marriage in 1905 to Walter L. Murphy, was editor of a San Rafael newspaper.

Her father, H. H. Granice, purchased the Sonoma Index-Tribune in 1884. After his death in 1915, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy purchased the newspaper from the estate.

They sold it in 1949 to their nephew, Robert M. Lynch, present publisher-editor.

They bought the barracks in 1936 and began a process of restoration that still continues.

Mrs. Murphy was the sister of Mrs. Julie G. Sprague of Redwood City; aunt of Sybil McClintock, Redwood City and Everett Sprague San Francisco.

Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrensens in Sonoma. Entombment will be in the Mountain Cemetery, Sonoma.

before." Councilman Maynard C. Holmes of Cloverdale agreed. "There has not been enough public information," he said.

Councilman Jack Ryersen of Santa Rosa said that an effort should be made to try and simplify the issue. "There should be no more side issues than absolutely necessary," Mr. Ryersen declared.

Mr. Ryersen called on the board of supervisors to settle such matters as the length of the bond issue, whether it be 20, 25, or 39 years, and to settle disposition of the existing courthouse in downtown Santa Rosa.

More Time

Councilman John J. King of Petaluma claimed that people are not worried as much about the interest rate of the bonds as they are ion at Doran Park at Bodega Bay. The 12-man station plans feature concrete-block construction of a single-floor station-barracks, a garage, helicopter pad and a lookout perched atop a 10,000-gallon water tank.

The site for the station will be completed by mid-June, Mr. Prather said; Coast Guard spokesmen have estimated that the facility will be under construction by this fall and be in operation early next year.

The thought of years of effort finally bearing fruit prompted a discussion of an official county ground breaking ceremony for the station, Mr. Prather declaring it is "properly" a ceremony to be held by official county bodies.

Commissioner V. M. (Bob) Moir said it has been "no easy job" to get the station and said it has been due to the efforts of the county's official bodies as well as the estimated $125,000 that the county has so far spent as a "local contribution" to the project.

He said he "understands" that the Bodega Bay Chamber of Commerce is "already claiming credit" for the station and wanted the hospitality was bestowed on state and national dignitaries along with their multitude of local friends.

In 1949, Mrs. Murphy and her husband retired, selling the Index-Tribune to her nephew, Robert Lynch.

In 1955, she and Mr. Murphy celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, with friends and relatives from near and far attending the event at Sonoma Mission Inn.

Up until the time of her illness, Mrs. Murphy was active in the Woman's Club and Sonoma Valley Historical Society.

She was also a member of the League of California Pen Women, California Historical Society, University of California Alumni Association and the California Press Association.

In addition to her beloved husband and devoted nephew here, she is survived by her sister, Mrs. Julie Sprague of Redwood City; another nephew, Everett Sprague of San Francisco and a niece, Mrs. Sybil McClintock of Redwood City. She was also the sister of the late Ramona Granice Lynch.

The Rev. Wayne Williams of the Sonoma Methodist Church officiated at the services Saturday afternoon. Active pallbearers were R. R. Emparan, Dr. Fred O. Butler, Vic Leveroni, Judge Ray Grinstead, Henry Steck and Nib Maffei. Honorary pallbearers were Irving Shepard and Armand Franquelin.

Entombment was in Mountain Cemetery, Sonoma.

continuance

A continuance has been granted in the case of the eight Sonoma Valley youths who threw a "cherry bomb" into Jerry's Bar the night of May 8. The request for a continuance was granted by Sonoma Justice Court Judge A. R. Grinstead when the youths appeared before him Tuesday of this week.

The attorneys for the youths, Newton Dal Poggetto and Peter M. Duffy said they wished more time to make an investigation into the matter.

Three persons were injured when the "cherry bomb," a king-size plastic firecracker, exploded in the bar. The youths said they carried out the deed as a "prank."

They are charged with three counts of battery and one count of disturbing the peace.

Sonoma mourns Celeste Murphy

(See editorial, Page 2, Third Section)

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon for Celeste G. Murphy, Sonoma historian, author and newspaperwoman who died Thursday at Sonoma Valley Hospital after an illness of 16 months' duration.

Friends and relatives gathered at the Bates, Evans and Fehrensen funeral home to pay their last respects to the brilliant little lady who edited The Sonoma Index-Tribune for 35 years, and who for the majority of her 80 years was active in the civic, art and social life of the community.

A native of Santa Clara, she was the oldest of three daughters born to Harry and Kate Granice. Her father was a native of New York and her mother, the former Kate Keogh, was from San Francisco.

Mrs. Murphy came here as a two-year-old girl in 1884 when her father purchased The Sonoma Index-Tribune. She attended Sonoma schools and in 1901 graduated from the University of California at Berkeley.

She returned to Sonoma and became assistant editor of the Index-Tribune under her father, and was a charter member of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club which her mother helped to found.

When her father purchased the San Rafael Independent in 1902, she was sent to the Marin city to become the weekly's editor. After turning it into a daily paper, her father sold it, and she returned to the Index-Tribune until her marriage in 1905 to Walter L. Murphy, local building contractor.

After the earthquake and fire of 1906, the Murphys moved to San Francisco, where Mr. Murphy helped to rebuild the great city. Later, they lived in Alameda for a number of years, returning to Sonoma in 1915 to purchase the Index-Tribune from the estate after Mr. Granice's death.

The Murphys operated the Index-Tribune for 35 years, Mrs. Murphy winning recognition for her writing ability and hard-hitting editorials locally and throughout the state.

She fought equally hard for the preservation of historical landmarks and for Sonoma Valley's progress. She was the author of "The People of the Pueblo," a history of Sonoma and also authored the Mission Pageant for the Valley of the Moon Vintage Festival, of which she was a founder.

In 1937, the Murphys moved into the old General Vallejo adobe barracks building, which they purchased and restored. The historic home was the setting for many outstanding social events, and there the couple's warm

Edgar A. Waite

Valley mourns death
of Edgar A. Waite

Funeral services were held on Saturday for Edgar A. Waite, 69, a retired veteran newspaperman and public relations specialist, who died in a Santa Rosa hospital Aug. 2.

Mr. Waite died without recovering consciousness following surgery for a brain tumor several weeks ago.

A resident of Sonoma Valley for the past six years, the former San Francisco publicity expert was held in high esteem by a host of friends for his kind and considerate nature, his true civic spirit, and his wide fund of professional knowledge.

In recent years, Mr. Waite had devoted himself to community projects. His last venture of this nature was the chairmanship of the Citizens' Committee which worked for passage of the ill-fated June 5 county building bond issue.

Mr. Waite was born in Broken Bow, Nebraska. He became a newspaperman at 18 when he joined the staff of the St. Charles Mo., Banner-News as a reporter. He became the city editor a year later.

After arriving in California in 1912, Mr. Waite attended the University of California at Berkeley for a time and then returned to newspaper work. For several years he was associated with the Santa Rosa Press Democrat. Later he worked for San Francisco papers for many years.

He was a former drama editor of the San Francisco Examiner.

Upon entering the public relations field, Mr. Waite worked for a number of firms in San Francisco and Los Angeles and became vice president of Braun and Company.

Later he was named public relations counselor for the Standard Oil Company and eventually left that firm to become public relations counselor for the Rich-

W. L. MURPHY
Special to The Examiner

SONOMA, Aug. 27.—Walter Louis Murphy, present day owner of General Vallejo's Home and retired publisher of the Sonoma Index-Tribune, died here Monday after a long illness. He was 84.

Mr. Murphy, who acquired the crumbling troop headquarters of the Mexican general on its 100th anniversary in 1936, was active in Sonoma County politics and was Sonoma's postmaster in the 1940's.

He was a native of Belvedere, Ill. He moved to California at the turn of the century. He became a resident of Sonoma County's Valley of the Moon and publisher of the area's weekly newspaper.

His wife, Celeste, was co-publisher of the newspaper and a prolific author of California historical articles. She died on May 10 of this year.

Mr. Murphy acquired the former adobe barracks in 1936 and immediately began restoration of the crumbling building. The aging structure was the scene of the rising of the Bear Flag in 1846.

Mr. Murphy is survived by three nephews, Frances G. Murphy of Sonoma and Leonard and Richard Murphy, both of San Rafael.

Funeral services will be at 1 p. m. Thursday in the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrensen in Sonoma. Entombment will be in Mountain Cemetery in Sonoma.

stands on E. Napa st. The couple were living in the rear of the Gottenberg home on E. Napa st. (next to the Pioneer French Bakery) when the 1906 earthquake struck.

The Murphys moved to San Francisco after the earthquake and fire where he helped to rebuild the great city. Later they moved to Alameda where Mr. Murphy served as superintendent at the old Pacific Coast Borax Company.

In 1915 the Murphys returned to Sonoma where they purchased the Index-Tribune from the estate of Mrs. Murphy's father, publisher H. H. Granice. Mr. Murphy was the publisher and all-around printer and pressman, and Mrs. Murphy the editor.

For nearly 35 years they were at the helm of the Sonoma weekly, retiring in 1949 when they sold the paper to Mrs. Murphy's nephew, Robert M. Lynch, the present editor and publisher.

From 1936 to 1943, Mr. Murphy took time out from his publishing duties to serve as postmaster of Sonoma.

During his years as publisher of the Index-Tribune, Mr. Murphy was active in the California Newspaper Publishers Association and served for many years as a director of the California Press Association.

He was noted for his hospitality, and his home in the old adobe Barracks on the Plaza was the setting for many gatherings of friends from near and far, including governors, congressmen, generals, admirals, motion picture stars and authors.

During his lifetime he was a friend of author Jack London and plant wizard Luther Burbank.

Mr. Murphy was a charter member of the Sonoma Valley Historical Society and had been a charter member of the Sonoma Kiwanis Club. He belonged to the Santa Rosa Elks Lodge, United Spanish War Veterans, Sons of the American Revolution, E Clampus Vitus and the California Press Association.

He is survived by a niece, Miss Frances Murphy, Sonoma County Librarian, Santa Rosa; three nephews, Leonard, Richard and Everett Murphy, all of San Rafael, and by Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Lynch of Sonoma.

The Reverend Martin Knutsen of Trinity Episcopal Church will officiate at the 1 p. m. funeral services today. Brief memorial services will be conducted at the cemetery by members of the Petaluma Camp No. 63, United Spanish War Veterans. Taking part will be Commander Willett Hopkins, Chaplain Harry Wagner and Adjutant William Deiss.

Pallbearers, active and honorary will include Judge Ray Grinstead, Vic Leveroni, R. R. (Dal) Comaran, Dr. Fred O. Butler, A. Nib) Maffei, Irving Shepard, Armand Franquelin, Henry Steck, Charles Montaldo, Joe Vella and Al Bridewell.

Walter Lewis Murphy—printer's devil, rancher, Spanish-American War veteran, builder, newspaper publisher, postmaster and genial host—died early Monday morning at Sonoma Valley Hospital.

The soft-spoken, pipe-smoking former civic leader was 84. Seriously ill for many months, he had been hospitalized here since August 7.

His death this week followed by four months that of his beloved wife, Celeste G. Murphy, who passed away on May 10.

The funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 1 p. m. from the chapel of Bates, Evans and Fehrensen. Entombment will be in Mountain Cemetery.

Born in Belvidere, Illinois, on Jan. 8, 1878, Mr. Murphy received his first newspaper experience at 14, as a printer's devil on the weekly Boone County Banner in Belvidere. In 1894 he came to Sonoma Valley with his mother, sister, Florence and brother, Ralph, where an uncle, L. L. Lewis had purchased the 1,000-acre Nicholas Carriger ranch in El Verano.

After a number of years of ranching, Mr. Murphy enlisted for service in the Spanish-American War of 1898, serving with Company C, Eighth California Regiment.

Later he traveled and worked in Seattle and Alaska, returning to Sonoma in 1904 when he entered the building contracting field with his brother, the late Ralph E. Murphy.

On November 22, 1905, Mr. Murphy was married to Miss Cecelia Celeste Granice at the Granice family home which still stands on E. Napa st. The couple were living in the rear of the Gottenberg home on E. Napa st. (next to the Pioneer French Bakery) when the 1906 earthquake struck.

The Murphys moved to San Francisco after the earthquake and fire where he helped to rebuild the great city. Later they moved to Alameda where Mr. Murphy served as superintendent at the old Pacific Coast Borax Company.

In 1915 the Murphys returned to Sonoma where they purchased the Index-Tribune from the estate of Mrs. Murphy's father, publisher H. H. Granice. Mr. Murphy was the publisher and all-around printer and pressman, and Mrs. Murphy the editor.

For nearly 35 years they were at the helm of the Sonoma weekly, retiring in 1949 when they sold the paper to Mrs. Murphy's nephew, Robert M. Lynch, the present editor and publisher.

From 1936 to 1943, Mr. Murphy took time out from his publishing duties to serve as postmaster of Sonoma.

During his years as publisher of the Index-Tribune, Mr. Murphy was active in the California Newspaper Publishers Association and served for many years as a director of the California Press Association.

He was noted for his hospitality, and his home in the old adobe Barracks on the Plaza was the setting for many gatherings of friends from near and far, including governors, congressmen, generals, admirals, motion picture stars and authors.

During his lifetime he was a friend of author Jack London and plant wizard Luther Burbank.

Mr. Murphy was a charter member of the Sonoma Valley Historical Society and had been a charter member of the Sonoma Kiwanis Club. He belonged to the Santa Rosa Elks Lodge, United Spanish War Veterans, Sons of the American Revolution, E Clampus Vitus and the California Press Association.

He is survived by a niece, Miss Frances Murphy, Sonoma County Librarian, Santa Rosa; three nephews, Leonard, Richard and Everett Murphy, all of San Rafael, and by Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Lynch of Sonoma.

The Reverend Martin Knutsen of Trinity Episcopal Church will officiate at the 1 p. m. funeral services today. Brief memorial services will be conducted at the cemetery by members of the Petaluma Camp No. 63, United Spanish War Veterans. Taking part will be Commander Willett Hopkins, Chaplain Harry Wagner and Adjutant William Deiss.

Pallbearers, active and honorary will include Judge Ray Grinstead, Vic Leveroni, R. R. (Dal) Emparan, Dr. Fred O. Butler, A. Nib Maffei, Irving Shepard, Armand Franquelin, Henry Steck, Charles Montaldo, Joe Vella and Al Bridewell.

Special to The Examiner

SONOMA, Aug. 27.—Walter Louis Murphy, present day owner of General Vallejo's Home and retired publisher of the Sonoma Index-Tribune, died here Monday after a long illness. He was 84.

Mr. Murphy, who acquired the crumbling troop headquarters of the Mexican general on its 100th anniversary in 1936, was active in Sonoma County politics and was Sonoma's postmaster in the 1940's.

He was a native of Belvidere, Ill. He moved to California at the turn of the century. He became a resident of Sonoma County's Valley of the Moon and publisher of the area's weekly newspaper.

His wife, Celeste, was co-publisher of the newspaper and a prolific author of California historical articles. She died on May 10 of this year.

Mr. Murphy acquired the former adobe barracks in 1936 and immediately began restoration of the crumbling building. The aging structure was the scene of the rising of the Bear Flag in 1846.

Mr. Murphy is survived by three nephews, Frances G. Murphy of Sonoma and Leonard and Richard Murphy, both of San Rafael.

Funeral services will be at 1 p. m. Thursday in the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrensens in Sonoma. Entombment will be in Mountain Cemetery in Sonoma.

Reunited by death on Monday

Valley pioneer

W. L. Murphy dies at 84; rites today

Walter Lewis Murphy—printer's devil, rancher, Spanish-American War veteran, builder, newspaper publisher, postmaster and genial host—died early Monday morning at Sonoma Valley Hospital.

The soft-spoken, pipe-smoking former civic leader was 84. Seriously ill for many months, he had been hospitalized here since August 7.

His death this week followed by four months that of his beloved wife, Celeste G. Murphy, who passed away on May 10.

The funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 1 p. m. from the chapel of Bates, Evans and Fehrensens. Entombment will be in Mountain Cemetery.

Born in Belvidere, Illinois, on Jan. 8, 1878, Mr. Murphy received his first newspaper experience at 14, as a printer's devil on the weekly Boone County Banner in Belvidere. In 1894 he came to Sonoma Valley with his mother, sister, Florence and brother, Ralph, where an uncle, L. L. Lewis had purchased the 1,000-acre Nicholas Carriger ranch in El Verano.

After a number of years of ranching, Mr. Murphy enlisted for service in the Spanish-American War of 1898, serving with Company C, Eighth California Regiment.

Later he traveled and worked in Seattle and Alaska, returning to Sonoma in 1904 when he entered the building contracting field with his brother, the late Ralph E. Murphy.

On November 22, 1905, Mr. Murphy was married to Miss Cecelia Celeste Granice at the Granice family home which still

W. L. MURPHY
 Special to The Examiner
 SONOMA, Aug. 27.—Walter Louis Murphy, present day owner of General Vallejo's Home and retired publisher of the Sonoma Index-Tribune, died here Monday after a long illness. He was 84.
 Mr. Murphy, who acquired the crumbling troop headquarters of the Mexican general on its 100th anniversary in 1936, was active in Sonoma County politics and was Sonoma's postmaster in the 1940's.
 He was a native of Belvidere, Ill. He moved to California at the turn of the century. He became a resident of Sonoma County's Valley of the Moon and publisher of the area's weekly newspaper.
 His wife, Celeste, was co-publisher of the newspaper and a prolific author of California historical articles. She died on May 10 of this year.
 Mr. Murphy acquired the former adobe barracks in 1936 and immediately began restoration of the crumbling building. The aging structure was the scene of the rising of the Bear Flag in 1846.
 Mr. Murphy is survived by three nephews, Frances G. Murphy of Sonoma and Leonard and Richard Murphy, both of San Rafael.
 Funeral services will be at 1 p. m. Thursday in the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrsen in Sonoma. Entombment will be in Mountain Cemetery in Sonoma.

Walter Lewis Murphy—printer's devil, rancher, Spanish-American War veteran, builder, newspaper publisher, postmaster and genial host—died early Monday morning at Sonoma Valley Hospital.
 The soft-spoken, pipe-smoking former civic leader was 84. Seriously ill for many months, he had been hospitalized here since August 7.
 His death this week followed by four months that of his beloved wife, Celeste G. Murphy, who passed away on May 10.
 The funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 1 p. m. from the chapel of Bates, Evans & Fehrsen. Entombment will be in Mountain Cemetery.
 Born in Belvidere, Illinois, on Jan. 8, 1878, Mr. Murphy received his first newspaper experience at 14, as a printer's devil on the weekly Boone County Banner in Belvidere. In 1894 he came to Sonoma Valley with his mother, sister, Florence and brother, Ralph, where an uncle, L. L. Lewis had purchased the 1,000-acre Nicholas Carriger ranch in El Verano.

 After a number of years of ranching, Mr. Murphy enlisted for service in the Spanish-American War of 1898, serving with Company C, Eighth California Regiment.
 Later he traveled and worked in Seattle and Alaska, returning to Sonoma in 1904 when he entered the building contracting field with his brother, the late Ralph E. Murphy.
 On November 22, 1905, Mr. Murphy was married to Miss Cecelia Celeste Granice at the Granice family home which still

Skid into tree

Two dead in highway crash near Glen Ellen

Funeral services will be held here this Saturday for two Petaluma residents who were killed last Thursday when their late-model car skidded out of control on rain-slick Highway 12 and crashed headon into a tree.

Helen Marie Blanchard, 35, was killed immediately, and her husband, driver of the car, Donald Lewis Blanchard, also 35, died several hours later at Sonoma Valley Hospital.

Another passenger in the car, Harold Barfield, 22, asleep on the back seat at the time of the accident, was taken to Sonoma Valley Hospital where he was kept under observation. He was released on Monday.

The trio had resided at 2420 I st. extension, Petaluma.

According to the California Highway Patrol, the accident occurred at 1:50 p. m. on Highway 12 a short distance south of Nuns Canyon rd. The report said that the Blanchard vehicle, traveling south, spun out of control after speeding around a sharp right hand curve.

The car was demolished when it smashed headon into a tree at the side of the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard and Barfield had been working as grape pickers at the Paganini Bros. vineyards in Kenwood. Blanchard had also been recently hired by the Pioneer French Bakery, and he was scheduled to have begun work in Sonoma on Monday, according to proprietor Ernest Mangiantini.

Mr. Blanchard is survived by two sisters in Connecticut.

Mrs. Blanchard is survived by a son, Jerry Lee Eye, and by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eye, all of Casper, Wyoming. She also leaves two sisters and three brothers in Casper.

Services are set for 2 p. m. Saturday at the chapel of Bates, Evans and Fehrensens. A minister of the Seventh Day Adventist

Jail Fugitive Sought For El Verano Slaying

A Sonoma man is sought as the possible assailant who beat Arnaldo Toso, 67-year-old retired El Verano grocer, to death in his home over the weekend.

Sheriff John A. Ellis said an all-points bulletin is out for Charles Arthur Hein, 21, who escaped from the Sonoma County jail Oct. 22 while doing a 90-day term for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The sheriff said Hein was identified by a single fingerprint deputies found in the wall of the bedroom where Mr. Toso's body, severely beaten on the head, was found yesterday.

Motive for the murder is believed to be robbery. Mr. Toso was known to keep large sums of money in his house and deputies yesterday could only find $78 hidden in a drawer.

His wallet also was empty.

Sheriff Ellis said Hein was well acquainted with Mr. Toso, having lived in a shed on the property about two years ago. Hein also allegedly burglarized Mr. Toso's home several times in the past.

Mr. Toso's body was found about 9:30 a.m. yesterday by his brother, Aldo Toso, San Francisco, and a friend, Carl Anderson, El Verano.

They found him in the bedroom, face down in a pool of blood. He had been struck with what appeared to be the butt of a pistol on the head three times.

The sheriff said the gas jets on the four burners for the kitchen stove and the heater in Mr. Toso's bedroom were turned on in an apparent attempt by the assailant to make it appear as though Mr. Toso had committed suicide.

Coroner Andrew Johansen said an autopsy revealed Mr. Toso died of a skull fracture. He was struck on the top of the head, over the right eye and over the right ear. Inspector Humbert Panizzera, who was assigned to the case, said blood stains and bloody clothing and rags were found in another bedroom. Blood stains also were found in the kitchen in the vicinity of the gas stove.

DEPUTY CHECKS FOR CLUES AT ARNALDO TOSO HOME Charles A. Hein, Inset, Sought as Assailant

Clothing Change?

"There was very little blood on Mr. Toso's clothing," Mr. Panizzera said, "indicating that the assailant may have changed Mr. Toso's clothing before he fled."

Identification Officer Dean Tresch lifted a fresh fingerprint from the wall of Mr. Toso's room.

He made a "tentative" comparison with the print of Hein's left ring finger.

The fingerprint was to be taken to the Department of Criminal Investigation and Identification in Sacramento today for more positive identification.

Coroner Johansen said the autopsy disclosed Mr. Toso died "before midnight" Sunday.

A neighbor who lives across the street from Mr. Toso said she noticed an auto parked in front of Mr. Toso's home between 9 and 11 a.m. Sunday.

About that time, she told officers, she heard a loud "thump" from within Mr. Toso's house, but thought nothing of it until she heard Mr. Toso had been murdered.

She was unable to give an accurate description of the car other than it was an older model.

Sheriff Ellis said Hein is believed to be armed and should be considered dangerous.

He and two other men, Jerry Shaul, 22, Sonoma, and Niels E. Bodholdt, 29, Santa Rosa, escaped (Continued on Page 8, Col. 7)

Man Killed
By Auto On Highway 12

By Staff Correspondent

SONOMA — A man about 58 years old was killed last night on Highway 12, near the Highway 37 intersection, when he was struck by two cars.

The man, tentatively identified as Cleo Martin, a transient, was squatting in the middle of the highway on the downslope of a hill at 8:05 p.m.

The California Highway Patrol said two cars were able to swerve to avoid the man, but a car driven by Roger C. Price, 31, Sonoma, crested the hill and struck the victim.

Mr. Price stopped his car and started walking back to the scene of the accident when a car driven by Joseph J. Doppler, 57, Sonoma, came over the hill and also ran over Mr. Martin.

After Mr. Price had struck the victim, another driver, who avoided the man earlier, came back and started to direct traffic.

One of the two cars that avoided Mr. Martin was driven by a woman who drove on and then reported the victim sitting in the road to Sonoma police.

County Coroner Andrew Johansen said the victim carried a Social Security card made out to Cleo Martin. Mr. Johansen said the investigation was continuing.

It was believed Mr. Martin had worked for the G.T. McKetchnie Ranch on Fremont dr., Schellville.

The accident brought Sonoma County's total to 57 traffic deaths this year. No citations had been issued.

The body was taken to Bates, Evans & Fehrensens, Sonoma, where funeral arrangements were being made.
